The Woman's Club
of Arcadia

'Hearts and Flowers' Theme Used for Arcadia Woman's Club Installation

Mrs. John T. Simpson was installed president of the Woman's club of Arcadia last week in one of the loveliest installation ceremonies to be conducted by the club. "Go Forward Together," the motto chosen by the new president for her year, was augmented by the installation theme —"Go forward together—and put your heart in what you are doing."

Mrs. Elwood Munger, past national and district officer and a friend of Mrs. Simpson, used hearts and flowers which, together with the lovely pastel gowns of the incoming officers, made a colorful and lovely picture. A large gold heart centered the stage and as each new officer was installed she placed her bouquet in its proper place as a link of the heart. Mrs. Simpson's bouquet was a small heart which she placed in the center of the large heart.

Others taking office with Mrs. Simpson were Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, first vice-president, who is on a trip, and her place was filled at the installation by Mrs. B. E. Turner; Mrs. L. R. Short, second vice-president; Mrs. Gregory Chase, recording secretary; Mrs. John Balthes, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Straub, parliamentarian; Mrs. Ralph George, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ivan Timmons, federation secretary; Mrs. Thurman Keim, senior trustee; Mrs. E. J. Fuerst, junior trustee, and Mrs. Albert Weichert, ways and means chairman.

Mrs. Munger gave the duties of office in verse. As the new president stood alone in the center of the stage following her installation, the membership rose and sang "You Are My Sunshine."

Chiffon Gown

Mrs. Simpson was gowned in a pale blue chiffon formal with a rhinestone necklace and earrings with which she wore a pale pink corsage. The other officers also wore pastel corsages, all of which were made by the daughter of Mrs. Timmons.

Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, in a blue satin dress and large black hat played background music at the piano during the ceremony. Mrs. Bruce McAbery, retiring president, dressed in a white brocaded satin gown and wearing a corsage of gladioli, pinned the president's pin on Mrs. Simpson and thanked the membership for its cooperation during her year.

Mrs. Simpson thanked Mrs. [illegible] for the beautiful installation and then paid tribute to all the past presidents of the club, calling each by name, saying that "they make our job in the coming year a comparatively easy one because of their years of devotion in building the traditions, and an institution as outstanding as the Woman's club of Arcadia." She harkened back to the days when members mowed the lawn, did their own carpentry and worried over the mortgage, and contrasted the present with the past and the responsibility of each member today in a club which is a going concern with a new building, free of debt, and a large membership.

Mrs. Simpson stated that each member would be asked to participate and to take some job, stating that to take responsibility would create a greater interest in the club. She announced the appointment of Mrs. H. J. Bair as membership chairman, and Mrs. W. C. Winchester as program chairman.

She named June 23 as the date for a luncheon she would host for board members, department chairmen and committee chairmen in the clubhouse, when plans would be discussed for the fall, after which work will be tucked away until October and the start of the new year.

Business

Mrs. McAbery presided at a short business meeting before the installation. Mrs. Charles Ganther, chairman of the student loan fund, asked the club's approval on the first application for student loan, a student at Redlands university who is also a graduate of Monrovia-Duarte high school. The club gave unanimous consent.

Mrs. C. G. Messenger read the librarian's report and Mrs. McAbery read the report of the committee that judged the reports of the departments, Mrs. S. W. Mundy, Mrs. Timmons and Mrs. Short. This report highly commended all departments of the club for their outstanding contributions during the year, but because of its extensive philanthropic work, the evening division was recommended for the trophy. Mrs. McAbery made the presentation to Mrs. Edgar V. Hawkins. She complimented Mrs. Edith Dickson for the clipping book which she compiled.

Mrs. Simpson, on behalf of the literature department, presented the club with two beautiful trays and Mrs. Ganther made the presentation of two silver candelabra. Mrs. McAbery gave a gift from the club to Mrs. Munger.

A lovely tea followed and the tea table was exquisitely appointed and centering it was a bouquet of pale pink carnations, matching the flowers of the president's corsage. Pouring at the two silver services were Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. McAbery. Mrs. Archie Wilson was chairman of the tea. Assisting her were Mmes. Robert Munro, William Gibbs, Edgar Hawkins, A. C. Heilman, George Wheeler, Russell Lu[illegible]s, Edward Kaurin, Freeman Gate[illegible]atherine Brown, Robert La[illegible] Shrader and Lewis Ash[illegible]

istorical Theme Used in Installation f Officers for Club History Section

In Santa Anita Oaks, themselves one of Arcadia's historical landmarks that once belonged to "Lucky" Baldwin, the home of Mrs. Richard Hilf was the setting of the annual installation of officers of the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia on Wednesday, June 25.

Twenty-three members and guests assembled for the installation of Mrs. J. E. Hutton, chairman; Mrs. William MacArthur, vice-chairman; and Mrs. J. E. Hacquebord, secretary-treasurer, with Mrs. John P. Ross as installing officer.

Using an original ceremony based on the historical El Camino Real bells on the early California mission trails, Mrs. Ross presented each of the incoming officers with corsages of yellow acacia, symbolizing the state's golden riches, hung with a miniature El Camino Real bell.

The retiring officers are Mrs. ry E. Reiss, chairman; Mrs. hard Hilf, vice-chairman, and s. John Vanderbur, secretary-easurer.

Special guests were Mrs. J. L. Byrne, club president during 1935-1936, when the California history and landmarks department was organized, and Mrs. Jennie Plummer, department member, who celebrated her 98th birthday last week. Mrs. Plummer was showered with birthday cards, and members sang, "Happy Birthday," as Mrs. Hilf, the hostess, entered with a tray of lighted birthday meringues made by Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. Hutton conducted a brief business meeting at which plans for an active year, in view of Arcadia's forthcoming 50th anniversary, were discussed. Chairmen named for next year include Mrs. John Renshaw, special events; Mrs. Robert H. Lane, ways and means, and Mrs. John Vanderbur, historian.

In keeping with the department's efforts during the past at securing the preservation of the "Lucky" Baldwin estate as an historical landmark, members voted support of a ways and means project to enable the department to make a contribution to the restoration of the historical buildings on the property. Mrs. Renshaw and Mrs. Bertha Nichols reviewed the department's activities in connection with the preservation of the adobe, Queen Anne cottage, and lake areas of the Rancho Santa Anita.

A potluck luncheon, an afternoon of reminiscences, and the meeting were enjoyed by Mmes. George W. Castle, Ralph I. George, J. L. Byrne, R. H. Schwarzkopf, Edwin Kolb, John P. Ross, M. M. Trew, E. J. Frentress, Robert H. Lane, Mrs. Jennie Plummer, Mrs. J. H. Sullivan, Mrs. Eugenia Griffin, Mrs. William MacArthur, Mrs. John A. Renshaw, Lucy Wyss, Ida K. Welsh, Bertha Nichols, Robert H. Lane, J. K. Weems, J. E. Hutton, R. L. Werner, J. F. Hacquebord and Richard Hilf.

Junior Symphony Orchestra Closes Season With Well-Played Concert

The San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony orchestra under the direction of Harold H. Scott, gave its final concert of the season Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse.

The concert was the climax of five months of training with Director Scott for the 55 young musicians in the orchestra, which was made possible when the projects committee of the Build Freedom With Youth committee of the Woman's club voted to sponsor a junior symphony orchestra.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the Arcadia Woman's club, announced Sunday that the club had voted to continue its sponsorship of the junior orchestra, which means that the training for the young musicians will continue. Mrs. Simpson stated that Mrs. Bruce McAbery, junior past president, had made the recommendation as her last official act. A large crowd greeted the well-played numbers with enthusiastic applause and the presence in the audience of many children showed the interest being developed in musical group training in the young by the junior orchestra.

During intermission Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Nancy Hutton, membership chairman of the orchestra, presented honor pins to those members who had attended regularly. They were Jeanne Farnam, Joyce Greve, Mailyn Greve, Barbara Haddock, Arlis Hampton, Georgia Harris, Joyce Harris, Kurt Hasselhorst, Margaret Hetrick, Lois Knock, Marianna Maier, Rosemarie Mason, James Manzullo, Desiree Mongar, Joan Schneider, Marcelle Schneider, Jared Hutton, Ruth Knock, Sandra MacLaren, Francis Hampton, Laurel Hutton, Barbara Jones, Merilyn Smith, Ann Stead, Patty Wittich, Gynelle Dysart, Rochelle Kaplan, Ann McKellar, Carol Hendrixson and Maruth Wiltse. The surprise presentation was a pin to the director as a token of appreciation from the orchestra.

The following program was played: orchestra—Eine Kleine Nachtmusik—Allegro-Romance-Minuet, Mozart; string duo — Arlis and Francis Hampton "Air"—Swan Lake ballet, Tschaikowski; orchestra—two choral preludes, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," "In Thee Is Joy," Bach; violin solo—Gary Walton, Gavotte Moderne, Severn; violin duo—Marilyn and Joyce Greve, Little Duet, Mazas; orchestra—Minuetto, Bolzoni; cello solo, Laurel Hutton, Sonata in G, Allegro movement, Breval; string trio—Barbara Haddock, violin; Jared Hutton, viola; Laurel Hutton, cello—Little Prelude in D, Mendelssohn.

Ensemble—Quintette No. 6—Allegretto con variazioni, Mozart; Bill Winn, clarinet; Joyce Greve, first violin; Marilyn Greve, Barbara Haddock, second violin; Joyce Harris, Jared Hutton, viola; Marilyn Bassford, Laurel Hutton, cello. Violin solo—Lester Hansen—Air Varie No. 3, Dancla; orchestra—Minuet from First Symphony, Valensin; trio—Marianna Maier, violin; Marilyn Bassford, cello; Carol Hendrixson, piano—Andante, from Sonata in C Major, Mozart; flute solo—Donna Anderson—Legende et Danse Slave, Guiraud; violin solo, Barbara Haddock—Student Concerto No. 1, First Movement, Seitz; orchestra, Symphony in F Major—Allegro, Adagio, Rondo, Johnson.

Following the concert, punch and cookies were served by members of the Woman's club with Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. John P. Ross presiding at the punch bowls. Mrs. Ross is coordinator of the project for the BFWY. Assisting were Mmes. R. C. Stackhouse, W. D. Gibbs, Bruce McAbery, Herman Kambeitz and Miss Mary Valentine.

Evening Division Receives Woman's Club Trophy Award, Installs Officers

Mrs. Verne H. Winchell Jr. was installed chairman of the evening division of the Woman's club of Arcadia at a dinner meeting held last week at the Sportsman's tavern.

She was presented with the gavel by the retiring chairman, Mrs. Edgar V. Hawkins, and the charge of office was given to other incoming officers by the retiring officers. Mrs. Hawkins instructed Mrs. R. A. Marsh in the duties of vice-chairman; Mrs. Robert Titgemeyer gave the duties of treasurer to Mrs. Jack Wagner, and Mrs. Anthony Angar turned over the secretary's books to Mrs. Titgemeyer.

It was announced that Mrs. Albert Clement would be the ways and means chairman and that she is planning outstanding activities for the summer for the evening division.

For the second time, the evening division received the trophy from the Woman's club for outstanding work. While the club was only six months old it received recognition for its work. The division presented its own trophy to the outstanding member of the year to Mrs. Robert Munro.

Highlight of the meeting was the reading of the historian's report by Mrs. Munro, who related the activities of the year in an interesting and amusing fashion. It was agreed that the department was closing an outstanding year.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Hawkins as retiring chairman; a house gift was given to Mrs. Angar, who will soon move into her new home, and a baby gift to Mrs. Titgemeyer for the coming event.

Those present were Mmes. A. M. Collins, Temple Hoffman, H. Verne Woodruff, W. S. Bradner, F. B. Stratford, L. N. Johnstone, R. A. Munro, W. A. Angar, Carl Foley, Edgar V. Hawkins, Verne Winchell, R. A. Marsh, R. W. Titgemeyer, Jack Wagner, Albert Clements and C. A. McElderry.

Club Committee Makes Plans for Gala Garden Party

Mrs. Albert Weickert, ways and means chairman of the Woman's club of Arcadia, and her committee, are making plans for the first event of the season, which will be a salad luncheon followed by cards, to be held July 23, at 11:30 a. m., in the garden of Mrs. Edward J. Verhoef, 380 West Camino Real.

A truly delightful and friendly party is being planned and club members are invited to join in the day's fellowship and to bring friends. Mrs. Weickert says, "Do not stay away because you have not made up a table for cards, come anyhow and find partners at the party."

Bridge and canasta will be played and many prizes will be given. Donation will be $1. For reservations call Mrs. Weickert, CUster 5-1444, or Mrs. Robert Lane at DOuglas 7-1814. Members will also be contacted by the telephone committee.

Mrs. Weickert's ways and means committee for the year is composed of Mmes. Robert Lane, E. V. Alverez, Thomas Bandy, Garth Brown, M. W Cocke, Florence Duffy, John Elliott, Elmer Godfrey, Gene Harrison, D. C. Humphrey, Carl Jackson, Edward Kaurin, Norman Kohler, Leo LaRue, William Price, Norbert Schilz, Charles Scholzs, T. L. Sparks, Lester Stephen, Mabel Wells, Milton Uhl, E. J. Verhoef and George Castle.

Woman's Club Tells Plan for Youth Music

A "Share Our Youth Music" plan is announced by the Woman's club of Arcadia, offering to all organizations an opportunity to add music to their programs throughout the year. The music will be played by members of the club-sponsored San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony orchestra on a courtesy basis for any civic, social, fraternal, or church group. Available are solo, trio, quartet, and ensemble numbers of a light classical nature.

The orchestra, which is conducted by Harold H. Scott, presented concerts in February and June of this year, and also appeared on a San Gabriel Valley Symphony program in March. Solosists and ensembles have played for the Los Angeles Harmonia club, the Arcadia OES Social club, the Temple City Christian church, and at special Woman's club affairs.

Organization program chairmen are invited to contact Mrs. John P. Ross, music coordinator for the Woman's club at DOuglas 7-3043, or Mrs. J. E. Hutton, orchestra membership chairman, at DOuglas 7-3060.

Luau Held by Arcadia Junior Woman's Club

Eighty persons attended the Arcadia Junior Woman's club Hawaiian luau Friday night at the home of Mrs. Chester Salisbury, 290 West Foothill boulevard.

Wearing sarongs and beachcomber attire, the couples danced until 1 a. m. to the music of Marvin Pearson's orchestra. One of the members of the club, Lorraine Beckman, sang several numbers with the orchestra.

Dinner was served on tables set on the ground around a beautiful pond filled with floating flowers. Several hundred orchids, donated by Georgene's flower shop in Sierra Madre, decorated the tables and the dancing area. Sang's of Pasadena was caterer for the affair.

Several of the members had lovely orchid leis flown to the mainland from Hawaii for the occasion. Mrs. John L. King was co-hostess of the luau.

Woman's Club Sponsored Group Gives Programs

Much in demand is music from the San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony orchestra by organizations in this area, according to Mrs. John P. Ross, music coordinator for the Woman's club of Arcadia, which sponsors the orchestra as a youth project.

A group of five played for LOA, woman's organization of the Reorganized L. D. S. church of Temple City, on Tuesday. The young musicians were Molly Michele, flutist, and Sesiree Mongar, pianist, both of Monrovia, and Barbara Haddock, violinist; Laurel Hutton, cellist, and Jared Hutton, violinist, all of Arcadia. The same group, plus Lester Hanson, violinist, of Temple City, played for a Temple City Kiwanis club luncheon on Tuesday, Sept. 2. Young vocalist, Michael Vandenberg, from the choir of St. Luke's Episcopal church, Monrovia, sang also on both programs.

Club Section To Make Field Tour

First event in the 1952-53 season club calendar of the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia is a field trip to the historical buildings on the Santa Anita rancho on Friday, at 10 a. m., according to Mrs. J. E. Hutton, department chairman.

Included in the tour, which will be guided by Dewey Nelson, historian and custodian of the building for the LA County and State arboretum, will be the Hugo Reid adobe, Lucky Baldwin's Queen Anne cottage, and Baldwin's fabulous, but seldom seen, mahogany-stalled coach barn. The tour will give department members an opportunity to view recently-undertaken restoration of the Queen Anne cottage and to hear of plans for finishing and furnishing the interiors of both the cottage and the adobe. Historical data and background of the rancho will be given by Mr. Nelson.

Members will assemble at the north, or Old Ranch road entrance to the arboretum to start the trip, which will take about an hour and a half. All department and club members and their guests are welcome to join the tour. No business meeting will be held at this time. Those needing transportation are asked to call CUster 5-2892 or Douglas 7-3060.

First regular meeting of the department will be in the solarium at 11:45 on Wednesday, Oct. 22, when department members will have luncheon, followed by a business meeting and special program. Mrs. Hutton's assisting officers are Mmes. William MacArthur, vice-chairman; A. F. Hacquebord, secretary-treasurer; Robert H. Lane, ways and means, and Mrs. John A. Renshaw, special events.

Club Section Makes Plans For Expansion

The Art department of the Arcadia Woman's club met on Sept. 17, at 10 a. m., at the home of the chairman, Cecilia MacArthur. Over steaming coffee served with crisp rolls, plans were formed for the coming club year activities. It was agreed to expand the arts and incorporate all the crafts such as oils, water colors, leather goods and china painting. Exhibits of the arts and crafts will be held at the clubhouse once a month.

An inspiring talk with pencil sketches was given by the chairman's husband, Bill MacArthur. He stressed the importance of a knowledge of anatomy as a foundation for painting portraits. MacArthur is staff artist on the Los Angeles Daily Mirror.

Those present were Cecilia MacArthur, Davette Green, Toni Weary, Nancy Hutton, Esther Stackhouse, Gertrude de Gero, and Edna Lenz, guest artist.

WOMAN'S CLUB BOARD MEETS

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the Woman's club of Arcadia, presided at a board meeting Tuesday at the clubhouse. Mrs. Thurman Keim was hostess at luncheon for the board. Mrs. Richard Straub, parliamentarian, was the only member not present and she is vacationing with her husband at Balboa.

Junior Woman's Club Appears On TV Program

Members of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club appeared on the Jack McElroy TV program over Channel 4 at 3:30 p. m. last Tuesday. Mrs. William Zima, third president, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Gerard Connor, presented the club's philanthropy project for next year to Jack McElroy.

The club will bend its efforts in philanthropy to assist the Little Flower Missionary home in Lincoln Heights, Los Angeles, a home for children from broken homes which is managed by the Carmelite order of nuns. At present it houses 50 children in a building that is 53 years old and has been condemned. Plans are being made to build a new dormitory.

The Jack McElroy program devotes four days a week to hearing the projects of different clubs and on the fifth day awards a prize to the club judged to have the most worthy cause.

The Arcadia club was presented with a portable barbecue for appearing on the show. Others taking part were Mrs. Richard Swanson, philanthropic chairman; Mrs. Wallace Knutsen, Mrs. L. J. McCourt, Mrs. Robert Kidd and Mrs. Gordon Johnson.

GREETINGS!—Mrs. A. C. Heilman, membership chairman for Arcadia Woman's Club, is shown greeting Mmes. H. J. Bair and George C. Clinger, from left, two members who assisted at yesterday's meeting. The club celebrated its 38th anniversary at the meeting and tea.

YEARLY TEA WELCOMES ARCADIA CLUB GROUP

The membership tea given by the Woman's Club of Arcadia each year to open the club season served a dual purpose yesterday. The tea welcomed new members and commemorated the 38th anniversary of the club.

Past presidents as special guests were greeted by Mrs. John T. Simpson, president. They included Mmes. Charles F. Ganther, Bruce McAbery, J. K. Weems, Bert J. Morris, Wallace Dressler, Roy Allen Young. Also John P. Ross, Harry W. Russell, Wood Glover, James A. Stoker, Charles W. Stewart and G. G. Meade.

The membership committee, headed by Mrs. A. C. Heilman, was responsible for the tea arrangements. Working with Mrs. Heilman were Mmes. George C. Clinger, cochairman, and H. J. Bair, vice-chairman. Others on the committee were Mmes. Jack Burge, Leslie Campbell, Earl Dettra, William Gibbs, Albert Green, W. H. Caryl and David Shrader.

Also on hand was Mrs. Albert Weickert, ways and means chairman, to remind members to make reservations for the chuckwagon dinner Saturday. The patio at the Leo La Rue home, 924 Holly Ave., Arcadia, will be setting for the party.

New Members Welcomed By Arcadia Woman's Club Wednesday at Annual Tea

The Arcadia Woman's club celebrated its 38th anniversary Wednesday, Sept. 24, at the annual membership tea in a beautiful clubhouse with a membership of 308, a far cry from the days when the club was organized as the answer to a need of 15 women who formed the Co-operative Arcadians, interested in civic affairs, culinary arts and social enjoyments.

The membership committee was in charge of the day, which was a delightful one. Mrs. A. C. Heilman, membership chairman, was assisted by Mrs. George Clinger, co-chairman; Mrs. H. J. Bair, vice-chairman; Mrs. Jack Burge, Mrs. Leslie Campbell, Mrs. Earl Dettra, Mrs. William Gibbs, Mrs. Albert Green, Mrs. W. H. Hockmuth and Mrs. David Shearer.

The president and her board formed a receiving line in the foyer: Mrs. John T. Simpson, Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, Mrs. L. R. Short, Mrs. Ralph George, Mrs. Ivan Timmons, Mrs. John Balthes, Mrs. Richard Straub, Mrs. Thurman Keim, Mrs. Ernest J. Fuerst and Mrs. Albert Weickert. Mrs. Gregory Chase, recording secretary, was out of town and unable to be present.

An unusual display in the foyer was the 38-year table which depicted the progress of the club during its lifetime. The background was a wall and stairs and on each stair was the figure of a lovely lady, representing a president of the club. Mrs. Leslie, first vice-president, created this arrangement. She was assisted by Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. John P. Ross with the arrangement of the table.

Also on the display table were coins representing the original budget of $50 in 1914 and the 1952-53 budget of $7000.

In the auditorium, two beautifully appointed refreshment tables were decorated with bouquets of white chrysanthemums and white tapers. Silver tea and coffee services were placed at both ends of the tables. Pouring were Mrs. Bruce McAbery, junior past president; Mrs. A. C. Heilman, Mrs. Charles Ganther, a past president, Mrs. George Clinger, Mrs. J. K. Weems, past president, Mrs. A. C. Bair, Mrs. Albert Green, Mrs. Earl Dettra, Mrs. John T. Simpson, Mrs. William Gibbs, Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, Mrs. Jack Burge, Mrs. L. R. Short, Mrs. David Shrader, Mrs. Leslie Campbell and Mrs. W. H. Hockmuth.

Through the courtesy of Mc Pratt, an organ was brought to the clubhouse and music was played during the afternoon by Rose Foster.

Mrs. Gerard Connor, president, and Mrs. Edward L. Schaar, vice-president, of the Junior Woman's club, were in charge of the guest book.

New members welcomed at the tea were Mrs. A. M. LaRay, Mrs. P. R. Sherk, Mrs. C. H. Meler, Mrs. T. M. Hamlin, Mrs. H. H. Stevens, Mrs. D. A. Copenhaver, Mrs. A. W. Ruck, Mrs. C. W. Hettrick, Mrs. James Skinner, Mrs. Kenneth Martin, Mrs. C. C. Baker, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. F. W. Wheeler, Mrs. C. S. Hoglund, Mrs. Richard Barro, Mrs. Clark Bridgman, Mrs. G. H. Leigh, Mrs. Charles Yundt, Mrs. S. R. Page.

Mrs. A. W. Langlois, Mrs. S. E. Koppel, Mrs. J. F. Deaton, Mrs. H. N. Williams, Mrs. George Langsner, Mrs. F. R. Newton, Mrs. E. G. McLaughlin, Mrs. L. M. Whittington, Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. A. A. Lamm, Mrs. J. B. Riddle, Mrs. J. F. Sweatt, Mrs. G. S. Miller, Mrs. E. S. Hutchins, Mrs. William Armstrong, Mrs. J. W. Watson, Mrs. W H. Dillon, Mrs. S. H. Rickard Mrs. R. C. Waters.

Club Observes Anniversary

Back in 1914 the Woman's Club of Arcadia was born. Wednesday, in conjunction with the traditional membership tea staged before the club season opens, the organization's 38th birthday was marked.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, club president, and her board were in the reception line, greeting and welcoming the more than 200 new and old members who took part in the commemorative afternoon.

Mrs. A. C. Heilman as general chairman, was assisted by Mrs. George Clinger and Mrs. H. J. Bair in arranging the smart affair.

Attracting much attention and many comments was a decorated table with displays representing the club's 38 years of progress. During its "infancy" members met at homes, in the old city hall auditorium then, about 15 years ago built the nucleus of the present clubhouse. This was cleverly portrayed as were budgets, required down the years, with coins in various sized piles. Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Kenneth B. Leslie and Mrs. John P. Ross were responsible for the display.

Pouring at the attractively flower-decked tea table were: Mrs. Simpson and past presidents: Mmes. Charles F. Ganther, Ross, Ray Allen Young, Clara Morris, J. K. Weems, and Bruce G. McAbery.

During the summer the clubhouse has been redecorated and air conditioned in preparation for the 1952-53 season which opens next Wednesday.

Arcadia Woman's Club To Open Season Wednesday, Soprano To Give Program

The Woman's club of Arcadia will hold the first regular mee of the season Wednesday in the clubhouse with the new president, John T. Simpson, presiding.

It will be a gala day and a happy day, a day of greeting old frie a day of getting acquainted with new members and of making t feel welcome. It will be a day when board members and committees be thanked by the president for their work during the hot summer months to insure a happy and a successful club year.

The clubhouse will present a beautiful appearance. Through the efforts of the board the interior has been painted, there are new drapes, new curtains, and a new ventilating system.

Following luncheon, Mrs. William C. Winchester, program chairman, will present Jeanne Determan, lyric soprano, in "Tapestries of Melodies."

Miss Determan has won wide acclaim throughout California and the west by her fine voice, her interpretive sense and her natural charm. She is an Atwater Kent winner, which in itself is proof of her ability.

She has appeared as guest soloist on the Standard hour with Robert Merril, with Arthur Fiedler conducting. She has been active in radio for several seasons, including appearances with the Roger Wagner Chorale on CBS as soloist for "Tapestries of Melody," and also with the NBC orchestra on the "Al Goodman Musical Album."

Branching into another field of entertainment, Miss Determan made her screen debut in musical comedy sequence of Milton Berle's picture, "Always Leave Them Laughing." She has also recorded at all the major studios, including the Faust sequence with Ezio Pinza for MGM's "Strictly Dishonorable." Miss Determan has also ventured into the new medium, television, and has appeared as guest on many shows on all the local channels, including "Hal Sawyer Views Hollywood," which is carried coast-to-coast.

Musical revues in theaters, hotels and clubs as soloist have given Miss Determan even more experience and displayed her versatility. Her most appearances have been with Harpo Marx, as singer and partner in skits, which indeed shows the variety of her accomplishments.

Mrs. Paul Kennedy, chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Kennett, co-chairman, will be at the door. Reservations must be made by tonight by calling Mrs. Herman Kambeitz, chairman, Mrs. Forest Allen or Mrs. Elizabeth M. Winans.

Arcadia Woman's Club Ushers in New Year With Record Attendance

Friendship, informality and genuine pleasure reigned supreme last Wednesday, when the Woman's club of Arcadia opened the 1952-53 season at the regular luncheon meeting. The beautiful clubhouse was an appropriate setting for the attractively gowned women who were present to usher in the new year. The president, Mrs. John T. Simpson, welcomed all with a charming sincerity and warmth of manner.

She introduced her executive board and committee chairman and expressed her appreciation to all who had contributed in any way in working to insure the success of the club year.

Mrs. Earl Dettra gave the pledge of allegiance, Mrs. Roy Regnier led in the singing of the national anthem, with Mrs. LeRoy Anderson at the piano. Mrs. Thatcher Jordan read the devotional, which was on faith.

Mrs. Simpson introduced Mrs. Ivan Timmons, federation chairman, who reported on federation and who also said that 10 minutes of each meeting would be devoted to a report on federation. She called on Mrs. William Weaver, who reported on courtesy, and Mrs. E. J. Frentress, who spoke on motion pictures.

Mrs. John Balthes, treasurer, presented a budget of $7000, which was approved by the membership. Mrs. Simpson commended Mrs. Katherine Brown, decorations chairman for the year, and she in turn introduced Mrs. Herman Kambeitz, chairman for the month, and her assistants, Mrs. John Scull and Mrs. Erlmund Maier.

Mrs. Gregory Chase, recording secretary, read a letter of appreciation from a music student's mother thanking the club for its sponsorship of the San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony orchestra. Another letter was read from a chaplain in Korea thanking the club for a tape recorder which he was using with the GIs.

MRS. JOHN T. SIMPSON
. . . happy year

The head table extended down the room in the shape of a giant T, and seated here were the president and her officers, committee chairmen, new members and membership committee members. A delicious chicken pie luncheon was served by Mrs. Thurman Keim. Assisting her were Mmes. Floyd Henderson, Leslie Campbell, Elmer Godfrey, George Hart, Archie Wilson, Forrest Allen, R. C. Stackhouse, Robert Ferrante and Miss Mary Valentine. Lovely arrangements of roses decorated the tables and the shrine memorial to departed members held the traditional white flowers. Mrs. Simpson asked an old member at each table to act as a hostess so that all members could become acquainted and enjoy a feeling of belonging.

The president introduced the membership chairman, Mrs. A. C. Heilman, who in turn introduced 38 new members. Mrs. Simpson welcomed them, saying, "That they had something to give the club and the club had something to offer them."

Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Paul Kennedy and Mrs. Raymond Kennett and members of their committee.

Following a short recess, Mrs. William C. Winchester, program chairman, presented Jeanne Determan, lyric soprano, in "Tapestries of Melody." She was accompanied by George Malloy at the piano.

It was easy to see why Miss Determan has won wide acclaim for her fine voice, interpretative sense and natural charm. Her selections and she displayed her versatility in her varied selection of numbers. Mr. Malloy also played two piano numbers by Chopin, which were enjoyed by the audience.

Club Invites Public To Colorful Fete

Mrs. Albert Weickert, ways and means chairman of the Arcadia Woman's club, urges members to make their reservations now for the chuckwagon dinner party to be given Sept. 27 from 5:30 to 8 p. m. in the patio of the Leo La Rue home, 924 Holly avenue.

The colorful event will be the second project of the ways and means committee of the club, and during the summer the committee has been hard at work on plans to make the barbecue an outstanding party, one of the highlights of the club year.

A complete barbecued beef dinner with dessert and coffee will be served. Amusement, entertainment and games have been provided. The Woman's club has extended a cordial invitation to the public to attend the dinner and to stay for the fun. Prizes will be given.

Reservations are limited, so obtain yours now, stated Mrs. Weickert. Call Mrs. Robert Lane at DOuglas 7-1814, Mrs. Lester Stephen, DOuglas 7-4880, or Mrs. Weichert, CUster 5-1444.

Chuckwagon Dinner Draws Happy Crowd

The chuckwagon dinner given last Saturday night by the ways and means committee of the Arcadia Woman's club, was a huge success, as well as an evening of fun and fellowship.

The party was held in the patio of the Leo La Rue home, 924 Holly avenue, and the patio was decorated in an appropriate style by the Luer Packing company. A delicious meal of barbecued beef, baked beans, salad, hot rolls, pie and coffee were served to 175 persons.

[illegible] ning was the music of the Teenettes band, which played Western music and old fashioned ballads during the dinner. The orchestra is made up of Virginia Elder, Peggy Parker, Diane Elder, Laurel Hutton and Gynelle Dysart.

Through the courtesy of Mel Pratt of the Arcadia Music Mart, two accordionists, Jay Heckman and Frank Wurtz, also added to the occasion with their accordion music.

Dood prizes were given, games were played and the past, present and future were told by Jean McDougall. Door prize winners were Mrs. Edward Heiss and Mrs. John Simpson. Mrs. Albert Weickert, ways and means chairman, was assisted by Mmes. Edward Alvarez, Thomas Bandy, M. W. Cocke, Michael Duffy, John Elliott, Elmer Godfrey, Jerome Humphrey, Charles Johnson, Edward Kaurin, Robert Lane, Leo La Rue, William Price, L. A. Rice, Charles Sholdes, T. L. New Members Presented to Arcadia Club

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of Arcadia Woman's Club, presided over the club meeting Wednesday, with 160 members and guests present.

Luncheon, in charge of Mrs. Ray Allen Young, preceded the business and program periods, during which time a short movie entitled, "Opportunity U. S. A." was shown by J. K. Weems through the courtesy of the Investment Bankers Association of America.

At this time new members and membership chairmen, Mrs. A. C. Heilman, Mrs. George C. Clinger and Mrs. H. J. Bair were introduced. Also a charter member, Mrs. Ida Parker who recently returned from a tour of Europe. An innovation by Mrs. Simpson was the recognition of members' birthdays. Led by Mrs. Roy Regnier, "Happy Birthday" was sung for those observing natal anniversaries in October.

Traditional and timely Halloween decorations of cauldrons and witches decorated the various luncheon tables done by the club-sponsored Brownie Troop No. 11 under the direction of leaders Mrs. Frances Peneprase and Mrs. Beverly Hastings.

The club had voted $375 for the year's philanthropy and Mrs. Verne H. Winchell, philanthropy chairman, presented a budget to date of $270. This was accepted and approved, during the brief business session. Federation chairman gave reports also.

By popular request Mrs. C. J. Mendenhall presented five book reviews. She was introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. William C. Winchester.

Movie and Book Reviews Top Woman's Club Day

Witches' cauldrons and witches on luncheon tables . . . and black cats and witches on clubhouse windows, lent an atmosphere of Hallowe'en last Wednesday to the Arcadia Woman's club for the regular luncheon meeting. Arrangements of yellow and orange roses and dahlias were placed in the foyer.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, extended a gracious welcome to all, and 165 guests and members enjoyed the day of happy fellowship. The program presented during the luncheon hour was through the courtesy of J. K. Weems, who showed a 25-minute film, "Opportunity USA," which depicted the opportunities of the free enterprise system of the United States. The film was made by the Investment Bankers Association of America. Mr. Weems gave an interesting talk before the film and answered questions after the showing.

Mrs. Earl Dettra gave the allegiance to the flag, and Mrs. Roy Regnier led in singing "America the Beautiful," with Mrs. LeRoy Anderson accompanying at the piano. Mrs. J. V. Covell, devotional chairman, used as the inspiration of her thought for the day, the lesson learned from a recent trip taken by her to the San Fernando Veterans hospital.

Brownies of Troop 11, sponsored by the club, decorated the tables and did the art work on the windows. Mrs. Katherine Brown, decorations chairman, and Mrs. Herman Kambeitz, decorated the foyer. A new custom has been initiated at the club: that of singing happy birthday to members, and those having birthdays in October were saluted.

Mrs. Simpson again designated a lady at each table as a hostess to assure that all would become acquainted and enjoy the day. The president introduced Mrs. Ida Parker, a charter member of the club who helped organize the young club in 1914. Mrs. Parker recently returned from a tour of Europe.

Mrs. Simpson introduced Mrs. A. C. Heilman, membership chairman; Mrs. George Clinger, co-chairman, and Mrs. H. J. Bair, vice-chairman. Mrs. Heilman introduced new members, who were welcomed by the president. She likened the club to a two-way street, saying, "The club both gives and receives.

Seated at the president's table were Mmes. Gregory Chase, Richard Straub, Earl Dettra, Roy Regnier, J. V. Covell, Katherine Brown, Ida Parker, Catherine Mundy, Robert Lane, Verne Winchell, John Balthes, Archie Wilson, Edward Heiss, William Winchester and Brownie Troop leaders, Mrs. Frances Penprass and Mrs. Beverly Hastings. Mr. Weems was also at the head table.

A delicious baked ham luncheon was served by a committee headed by Mrs. Ray Allen Young. Assisting were Mmes. Paul Kennedy, Juliet Renshaw, Albert Clement, Charles Smith, Clinton Hetrick, Jesse Balser and Fred Wheeler.

Mrs. Winchell, philanthropy chairman, reported on the amount so far allocated by the committee. The club set aside $375 to be used for philanthropy, and to date the committee has used $270, with a balance yet to be used of $105. Short reports on federation were given by Mrs. Balthes, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Heiss.

Following intermission, Mrs. Margaret Mendenhall presented one of her outstanding book reviews. Mrs. Mendenhall is giving her book reviews at the club this year by popular request.

A baked food sale was held by the California history and landmarks department with Mrs. John Hutton and Mrs. Lane in charge. The art department presented an interesting exhibit of its handcraft. Mrs. William MacArthur is chairman of the department.

History Department of Arcadia Woman's Club Tours Arboretum

"Just like a little house out of a fairy story," exclaimed members and guests of the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia as they viewed the restored portions of the Queen Anne cottage on a recent field trip. Its Victorian gingerbread facade is now as sound as ever and is painted white with brilliant red trim, contrasted with sky blue in the domed porch ceiling, all faithful to the original spirit of the structure.

Dewey Nelson, historian and curator of the buildings of Rancho Santa Anita that are now part of the Los Angeles State and County arboretum, traced the cottage's history since its construction in 1881. After the completion of the exterior restoration work, the interior, too, is to be restored to its original colors and will be furnished in keeping with the original, including some pieces from the Baldwin family. Even the colored paneled windows, which were stored away many years ago, will be put back in place. The restoration is scheduled for completion by next spring.

Nelson revealed that Lucky Baldwin's tally-ho will be placed in the coach barn, whose elaborate appointments reflected "Lucky's" love of and pride in his horses. Department members and their guests were much impressed with the beautifully woodworked and wrought-iron decorated interior.

The Hugo Reid adobe, which will be the last building to be restored, will also be refurnished in keeping with the 1830's and 40's when Reid was its original occupant. The furnishings will be collected through the cooperation of the Colonial Dames of America, the Los Angeles County museum, and private donors. There will be a special Hugo Reid garden, filled with plants as listed by Reid himself in an inventory of the garden at the time of his sale of the property. This unusual horticultural inventory will make possible a re-creation of a garden very close to the original.

A passage through "The Jungle," the primitive planting area north of the lake, completed the tour. This is the area that has provided the background for more than 100 motion picture films, and Nelson indicated that it is the arboretum's intention to leave it in its present state.

The local California history and landmarks department, like its sister departments throughout CFWC, is deeply interested in the restoration of this Arcadia landmark, and will sponsor a sale of baked foods contributed by department members following the club luncheon on Wednesday, Oct. 15, in order that Arcadia may be included among the contributors to the historical committee fund.

LONDON MYSTERY DRAMA TO BE SPONSORED BY JUNIOR CLUB

"The Misplaced Lady," London mystery comedy, will be shown in this area the evenings of Nov. 21 and 22 in the auditorium of the Clifton school in Monrovia. The play was written by Clare Booth Luce and will be given by the Elizabeth Kerr players.

The play presentation is being sponsored by the Arcadia Junior Woman's club and will be its one big benefit project of the year. The funds will be used for the club's welfare work. Mrs. Richard Swanson, ways and means chairman, is chairman of the event.

ELIZABETH KERR
. . . to bring play

Miss Kerr, who has many friends in Arcadia, returns to Southern California after two seasons on Broadway, where she was associated with Eddie Dowling, appearing with him in "Angel in the Pawnshop" and "Child of the Morning."

As actress, producer and director, Miss Kerr has been active in Southern California for some years. She is also well known as a reviewer of plays, and has operated her own theater.

Despite the lure of Broadway, Miss Kerr has chosen to remain here, where she can give her entire efforts to this new enterprise, namely that of bringing good theater fare to the smaller communities. Her company is composed of professionals and many of its members are active in pictures and television. The presentation of the "Misplaced Lady" at the Clifton School marks the initial American production of this play. It has mystery, comedy and drama, and will appeal to both young and old.

Concurrent with the activities of the traveling company, Miss Kerr opens her newly acquired theater in North Hollywood and a new play will also be produced there in November.

Anyone desiring tickets is asked to call Mrs. Swanson at DOuglas 7-4677, or Mrs. Lawrence Kelley at DOuglas 6-1541. Tickets will be delivered by the Juniors.

NIGHT GROUP PLANS TO DRESS DOLLS

Mrs. Verne Winchell, chairman of the evening department of the Arcadia Woman's club, entertained the group last week at her home for a social evening. Decorations were carried out in the Hallowe'en motif, doughnuts, coffee and tea were served, and cootie was played.

Mrs. R. C. Simkins won the first prize, Matchabelli cologne, and Mrs. W. S. Bradner won the boobie prize, a head of cabbage. Mrs. R. A. Marsh was in charge of the social evening. The group made plans to dress 50 dolls for Christmas, and to give a dance on Dec. 20 at the San Gabriel Shrine club. They also plan to assist the Arcadia Junior Woman's club with its Thanx project.

Those present were Mmes. Gene Clarkson, Carl Hoglund, L. B. Lee, James Skinner, R. C. Simkins, R. W. Titgemeyer, E. F. Hutchins, A. P. Stuhrman, A. W. Angar, J. M. Wagner, A. J. Clement, Allan Langlois, Alfred LaRay, Sidney Koppel, W. S. Bradner.

JUNIOR CLUB TO SPONSOR PLAY HERE

Former Arcadia resident, Billie Teachout, will appear in the "Misplaced Lady," an Elizabeth Kerr production to be given at the Clifton school in Monrovia on the nights of Nov. 21 and 22, sponsored by the Arcadia Junior Woman's club.

While living here, Miss Teachout organized drama classes for children. She has appeared in many Pasadena playhouse productions, among them "The Women," "Great American Family" and "Girl With the Green Eyes." She will play the part of Mrs. Small in the production, and the part is tailormade for her, as she is actually a native of London, England.

"The Misplaced Lady," written by Clare Booth Luce, has mystery, comedy and drama and will appeal to young and old.

The play is being presented by the Junior Woman's club to raise funds for its philanthropy for the year. Mrs. Richard Swanson, ways and means chairman, is in charge of the event.

For reservations, call Mrs. Swanson, DOuglas 7-4677, or Mrs. Lawrence Kelly, DOuglas 6-1541.

Fine Artist To Present Program Wednesday at Arcadia Woman's Club

Barbara Hudson, heralded by the New York Times as one of the best performers in the United States, will present the program Wednesday at the regular luncheon meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia. She will replace Al Bolton, originally scheduled to give the program.

Extensive travel, education and many varied experiences give Barbara Hudson the background she needs from which to draw her character sketches and original monologues. They have great depth and originality as well as humor. She has studied at six colleges and universities, holds two degrees in drama, has her private pilot's license, and was in the first officer's class in the Marine Corps Women's Reserve in World War II.

BARBARA HUDSON
. . . outstanding

William C. DeMille, head of the department of drama at the University of Southern California says of her work, "Miss Hudson has played many parts under my direction, parts running the gamut from high comedy to tragedy. She has a fine talent and a sweet womanly quality which colors her work." She has played leading roles in more than 15 main-stage university productions and has done professional acting on the stage, screen, radio and television. Her ability is equal in acting, writing or directing. Miss Hudson played the role of Lady Macbeth in a full length color film produced in the East. She received the Phi Beta award for being the outstanding actress at USC.

Miss Hudson is interested in the dramatic arts not only for entertainment value, but for what they can contribute in a spiritual, social and historical sense. Homemaker and mother of two small children is successfully combining career and home through her recital appearances.

Kay Mulvey, well known television and radio star, and daughter of the Rudy Schwarzkopfs of Arcadia, will be honored guest at the luncheon.

The regular luncheon will be served at 11:30 a. m. and Mrs. John P. Ross will be chairman of the luncheon committee. Guests will be greeted at the door by Mrs. Paul Kennedy and Mrs. Raymond Kennett and members of their committee.

Please make reservations by the night by calling Mrs. Floyd Kambeitz, DOuglas 7-3672 or Mrs. Forest Allen, DOuglas 7-5360.

Historical Society President Speaks To Arcadia Woman's Club Section

John Lyon, president of the Glendora Historical society, fired members of the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia with enthusiasm for the club project for the current club year, the founding of an Arcadia Historical society, when he spoke before the department at its opening meeting of the year on Wednesday, Oct. 22.

Problems of organization, community objectives and accomplishments of the neighboring group, which has been functioning for five years, were outlined by Lyon, who was a charter member and director for three years before becoming its head. Department members were generous in volunteering assistance for the forthcoming organization meeting of the Arcadia Historical society, which is scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 16, at 2 p. m. in the clubhouse.

Mrs. Robert H. Lane reported on the recent successful baked food sale held by the department. This sale, planned as the group's only ways and means event of the year, will finance department projects. Members voted a $10 membership in the LA County Arboretum Historical Committee Fund to further the work on the restoration of historical buildings—the Queen Anne Cottage, the Hugo Reid Adobe, and the Lucky Baldwin Coach Barn on Rancho Santa Anita.

Members will meet for their traditional Thanksgiving potluck luncheon on Wednesday, Nov. 26, with a speaker appropriate to the holiday occasion. Tentative plans were made for joining forces with the international relations department at its Christmas party on Dec. 15, when Mrs. Richard H. Hilf, chairman of international relations, extended an invitation.

Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. J. E. Hutton, assisted by Mmes. William MacArthur, vice-chairman; Andrew F. Hacquebord, secretary-treasurer; Hilf, ex officio, and Lane, ways and means. Mrs. John A. Renshaw, special events chairman, was unable to be present. Others attending were Mmes. William Adams, a new member, E. J. Frentress, John B. Scull, Charles V. Crellin, J. H. Sullivan, Bertha Nichols, and Lucy Wyss. The business meeting and program followed a snack luncheon for which the dessert was furnished by the chairman.

Mrs. Nola Halpin Shows Colored Slides To International Section

Mrs. Richard Hilf welcomed members and guests Monday at the regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club international relations department. Mrs. John Vanderbur led in the salute to the flag and Mrs. Lucy Wyss read the minutes of the last meeting.

Mrs. Alice Moss and Mrs. Horace Self were hostesses of the day. Members brought sandwiches, and coffee and homemade cookies and stuffed dates were served by the hostesses. Mrs. Self made the cookies and Mrs. Hilf brought the dates. The table was centered with a lovely fall arrangement of orange berries, green leaves and persimmons. N. E. Stadig brought a bowl of beautiful dahlias.

Mrs. Wood Glover, in charge of current events, asked all members to bring interesting items to the next meeting. Discussion was held on various ways and means projects and it was announced that some of the meetings of the department will be held in the homes of members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stadig, 545 Valido road, one block south of Colorado.

Mrs. Stadig presented Mrs. Nola Halpin, a former member of the club and a world traveler, who showed pictures and gave an interesting narration of Washington DC and other points of interest. She was in Washington last year and took pictures of the beautiful trees, shrubs and gardens of her home there. She also showed pictures of the White House, the Pentagon, scenes around Washington, Richmond and Norfolk, Jamestown, Williamsburg in Virginia, and Lake Placid and New Hampshire scenes, finishing with Alaska.

Members present were Mmes. John Vanderbur, Richard Hilf, Wood Glover, N. E. Stadig, Robert Lane, Lucy Wyss, Richard Straub, R. H. Schwarzkopf, Elizabeth Winans, John Hutton, Edwin Gonter, William Adams, John Scull, Albert Green, Nola Halpin, Clara Morris, Horace Self, Alice Moss, J. K. Weems, Helen Dillon, Pearl Ruck and Florence MacRorie.

Mrs. Simpson To Attend Conference

Mrs. John T. Simpson will leave tomorrow for Indio to attend the semi annual meeting of the national board of directors of the Camp Fire Girls incorporated. The board members, who are coming from all over the United States, will stay at the Cochran-Odlum ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Odlum (Jacqueline Cochran, the famous aviatrix). There will be a chuckwagon dinner and other special events for the group between business sessions.

A committee will be appointed to study interracial and intercultural practices in Camp Fire Girls. Selection of such a committee was authorized by a vote of adult delegates to Camp Fire Girls national triennial conference held in New York last May. Mrs. Simpson attended the convention and was a speaker at one of the sessions.

The committee will develop methods to guide local board and committee members, leaders and staff in making more effective Camp Fire Girls national policy of extending membership to girls of all races and religions.

The youth agency's 1953 budget will be presented to the board as well as reports from the president, the national director and the nominating committee.

Camp Fire Girls, open to all girls from seven to 18 years of age, was founded in 1910 by Dr. Luther Halsey Gulick and a group of progressive educators. More than 370,000 girls in all sections of the country are now members of the organization to which 3,000,000 girls have belonged since its founding.

London Play To Be Given In This Area

Dame rumor started a whispering campaign in a little English village that set up a chain of circumstances both mystifing and amusing, as is brought out in "The Misplaced Lady" by Claire Booth Luce and presented by the Elizabeth Kerr professional players.

The play will be given under the sponsorship of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club and will be its one big money making project of the year to raise funds for philanthropy. It will be presented in the auditorium of the Clifton school in Monrovia the nights of Nov. 21 and 22.

The presentation of The Misplaced Lady in this area will mark its first American production, which in its London premiere featured Margaret O'Brien in the leading role. The play has mystery, comedy and drama that will appeal to young and old.

The Elizabeth Kerr players and Miss Kerr herself, have many friends in this area and they have an enviable reputation for fine performances. Miss Kerr is returning to Southern California after two years on Broadway where she was associated with Eddie Dowling, appearing with him in "Angel in the Pawnshop" and "Child of the Morning." The Arcadia and Monrovia Woman's clubs are cooperating to make this a gala event.

For reservations call Mrs. Richard Swanson, ways and means chairman, DOuglas 7-4677 or Mrs. Lawrence Kelley at DOuglas 6-1541.

JUNIOR CLUB ASKS FOR OLD NYLONS

The women of Arcadia can help Japan's 1,800,000 destitute war widows and waifs by simply saving their old nylon stockings.

The Arcadia Junior Woman's club will pick up your old stockings and handle the shipping to Japan, Mrs. Gerard Connor, president, says. "Here is a practical, inexpensive way for Arcadia women to help weave friendship for the United States and build new hope for the Japanese."

"Hunger and unemployment stalk these war widows. The amazing fact is that only 2½ pounds of old useless stockings will provide one day's work for a widow. Unraveling the old stockings and reweaving the thread into sacks, woven cloth and other goods will provide more work and more rice for hungry mouths.

"Hunger and unemployment make an ideal breeding ground for Communist ideology. You can do your part by calling DOuglas 7-5998 if you would like the Juniors to pick up your stockings; or you may deliver them yourselves to 170 Naomi street. Ask your club to bring old stockings to your next meeting."

HISTORICAL SOCIETY—Among those present at the initial meeting of the Arcadia Historical society on Nov. 16, in the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse were, left to right, Gordon Eberly, author of "California's Arcadia," and speaker at the meeting; Mrs. J. E. Hutton, chairman pro tem; Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, chairman pro tem, and Mrs. Dee M. Payne, earliest resident present. —Tribune photo

Initial Meeting Held by Arcadia Historical Group

Arcadia's newest group, the Arcadia Historical society, took its initial steps toward formal organization when an enthusiastic number of history-minded citizens gathered Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16 at the Arcadia Woman's club.

The history and landmarks department of the Arcadia Woman's club, under the auspices of the club, is sponsoring the society. Mrs. J. E. Hutton, department chairman, sensing the need of such an organization, proposed it to her department, whose members unanimously adopted it as a project.

Mrs. Hutton served as chairman pro tem at Sunday's meeting, assisted by Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, department secretary, also in a pro tem capacity. Mrs. John T. Simpson, Woman's club president, extended cordial words of greeting and encouragement.

The formal motion to organize was made by Rudy H. Schwarzkopf, and committees were named from the floor to set up the functioning of the society. Homer Wishek, Dewey Nelson and Mrs. John P. Ross are on the by-laws committee; Gordon Eberly, Mrs. Emma Meade and Mr. Schwarzkopf will nominate the directors; Mrs. Dee M. Payne, Mr. Schwarzkopf and Mrs. Alice Cline are on the membership committee; Mrs. Richard Hilf, Mrs. Pearl Teague Retzer and Mrs. Hugh Sanborn are on the program and hospitality committee; and Mrs. A. R. Eastwood heads the telephone committee.

The by-laws will be adopted and officers elected at the next meeting tentatively set for Sunday, Jan. 25, at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Payne, in behalf of the membership committee, extends an invitation to all interested in preserving Arcadia's history to become charter members. Mrs. Payne is one of Arcadia's pioneers, having lived here since January, 1907. The charter membership rolls will remain open until the next meeting.

Aims and purposes of the new group were outlined by Mrs. Hutton who pointed out that the group will be organized in time to participate in Arcadia's 50th city birthday celebration during 1953.

Featured speaker of the afternoon was Gordon Eberly, whose history of the city entitled "California's Arcadia" will come off the press early in 1953 to coincide with the city's golden anniversary observance. He told of his fascinating work in tracing the city's history through four periods—the mission, the rancho, founding of the municipality, and, finally, the era of expansion—as part of the research for his volume.

Much interest was evidenced in the collection of early newspapers lent by Mrs. Harvey S. Moss Sr., as activities of many of those present was mentioned in issues displayed. The Arcadia Savings and Loan lent reproductions of early photos.

A coffee hour preceding the meeting provided both reunion and get-acquainted opportunities for the many pioneer families and newcomers present. The hospitality arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Hilf and Mrs. Ross, assisted by members of the California History and Landmarks department.

Juvenile Delinquency Blame Placed on Home By Woman's Club Speaker

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the Woman's club of Arcadia, extended Thanksgiving greetings to members and guests at last week's meeting of the club. The president said "I am grateful this Thanksgiving for your friendly cooperation, your generosity and thoughtfulness, and you are my blessings, for you are giving me a happy personal year."

Luncheon speaker Ira J. Kellogg, special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was introduced by Mrs. Earl Dettra as a home town boy. He was educated at Monrovia-Duarte high school and now lives in San Marino.

Kellogg in speaking on "Your Protection and Mine," brought out many interesting and pertinent facts on crime and its increase in this country. He placed the blame for juvenile delinquency on the home saying that "Many parents believe that it is the duty of government and the schools to teach the child the fundamentals of government, when instead the training should begin in the home."

The speaker stated that a major crime is committed every 15 minutes in the United States and a large percentage of them are committed by youths under 21. He blamed the use of narcotics for many of these crimes. He also stated that the economic situation has a great bearing on the increase of crime.

"The question of law enforcement is big business today and a good percentage of the budget allocated for that goes to police protection," Kellogg said. He spoke of the 1900s when the policeman on the beat was the father confessor and friend of all in his community, comparing that with the feeling today when the average citizen has no use for the policeman unless he needs him. He blamed the Volstead act as doing much to incite a disregard of law. He stated that a friendly feeling of cooperation must be built up again.

He traced the growth of the FBI from the days when it was a political football to 1924 when J. Edgar Hoover took over, rebuilding it on a professional basis. All of its members must be college graduates and many of them come from other professions to its ranks. He said with pride that the FBI has a record of 97 per cent convictions.

The tables were decorated with an arrangement of cattails and fall leaves by members of the Tawa Tami Camp Fire Girls, who are sponsored by the club. Their leaders, Mrs. Marie Alexander and Mrs. Ruth DeWeese were present and seated at the speaker's table. It is the policy of the club to have its sponsored Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scout troops take charge of decorating the tables several times during the year.

Mrs. Garth Greer and Mrs. Thomas Kemp were introduced as new members by Mrs. A. C. Heilman, membership chairman. It was announced that the club had voted to grant a complimentary life membership with the privilege of active membership to Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. Alice Cline and Mrs. J. L. Byrne.

Mrs. Ivan Timmons, federation chairman, announced that the annual White Christmas breakfast and pageant will be presented Dec. 19 at Federation headquarters in Los Angeles. She asked members to get in touch with her for reservations. She also introduced members who had attended district conferences: Mrs. John Scull, Mrs. Earl Dettra and Mrs. Elmer Godfrey.

Mrs. Simpson asked the club to stand in prayer for members, Mrs. Rose Lane and Mrs. Harriet Leitz, whose husbands recently passed on, with Mrs. Bruce McAbery leading the prayer. The president announced that the Dec. 17 meeting will be the Christmas meeting with a turkey luncheon.

FINE PROGRAM PLANNED FOR ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB

"Music You Love To Hear" by the Festival Singers, and an interesting luncheon speaker, Col. Abbott Boone, promises an outstanding day for members and guests of the Woman's club of Arcadia at its regular luncheon meeting on Wednesday. Col. Boone, US Army retired, is a graduate of West Point. He served in Europe in World War I and in the South Pacific in World War II and his last tour of duty command was at the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation. Since his retirement he has lived in Claremont. His subject will be "International Problems Confronting the Eisenhower Administration. He will be introduced by Mrs. N. E. Stadig, whose husband, Col. Stadig served with Col. Boone in World War II.

The afternoon program will feature an unusually fine group of concert singers of which the Hollywood Woman's club says "It is a pleasure to present a musical program that is in every way such a success."

Sparkling and colorful, this delightful quartet of professional voices loving to sing "The music you love to hear," offers a program of musical good taste combined with ear-catching variety. In their programs are presented musical gems such as "The Morning of the Year" by Charles Wakefield Cadman, Brahms' Liebslieder Waltzes, selections from current Broadway musicals, duets, solos and quartets from opera and light opera, as well as humorous and delightful arrangements of folk tunes and all seasonal music. For the Christmas season colorful costumes and candles point up the cheer and beauty of the traditional carols and holiday music of their yuletide program.

The singers are Leila Webster, soprano; Enid Jacobsen, contralto; Gene Curtsinger, tenor; William Swan, baritone. They are accompanied at the piano by Raymond McFeeters, who is acknowledged to be one of America's outstanding accompanists, having accompanied such artists as John Charles Thomas.

Luncheon will be served as usual at 11:30 a. m. and Mrs. John T. Simpson will preside. Members are asked to make reservations by tonight by calling Mrs. Herman Kambeitz, DOuglas 7-3672, or Mrs. Forest Allen, DOuglas 7-5360.

CLUB LEADER SPEAKS ON WOMEN'S ROLE

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the Arcadia Woman's club, was guest speaker at the Nov. 24 meeting of the international relations department of the club, which was held at the home of Mrs. N. E. Stadig.

Mrs. Simpson stressed the political, intelligent and physical gains women have made since 1300 B.C., since first assuming the role of homemaker, then stepping into industry, science and literature. She said "The world needs altruism, an inherent quality in woman, developed by motherhood experience. We must prepare ourselves with the best technique of leadership. A leader must have integrity and technical mastery, be decisive, have intelligence, skill in teaching and last but not least, faith in fellow workers.

"There will be wars and more wars until women of the world wake up and help make the political decisions to the end that humanity will prevail instead of force," Mrs. Simpson concluded by saying "This is a challenge to all of us."

A delicious dessert luncheon was served to 20 members present. A short business was conducted by Mrs. Richard Hilf, chairman. Mrs. Stadig, co-chairman, introduced Mrs. Simpson, whose topic was "Women on the International Scene."

Junior Woman's Club Holds Unique Party

A game of visiting foreign countries, with the collection of money to go to "Meals for Millions," a foundation which donates meals to relief agencies, was the theme of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club membership party.

Each table was beautifully decorated to represent a country. Prizes were given to the ones who managed to travel to each country in the shortest time. Mrs. William Zima, membership chairman, was hostess for the evening, and was assisted by her committee: Mrs. Robert Raney, Mrs. J. H. Fulgham, Mrs. Robert Knerl, Mrs. Don Vick, Mrs. Gordon Johnson, Mrs. Robert Picking and Mrs. Richard Sornborger.

Over 100 Thanx packages for the fighting men in Korea have been mailed overseas. Mrs. Wade Burchell, chairman, was responsible for the success of this project. The juniors under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Schreiber supported the Red Cross Bloodmobile. The club is still collecting old nylons for the Japanese war widows.

Club Section Dresses Dolls For Orphans

Members of the evening department of the Arcadia Woman's club will meet Monday, Dec. 8 at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Marsh, 500 Old Ranch road. At this time the group will finish dressing the dolls to be given to half-orphans of Los Angeles county.

At a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Albert Clement, 44 Las Flores, many of the dolls were dressed. Mrs. Verne Winchell presided at a business meeting, when plans were completed for the benefit White Christmas dance to be given Dec. 20 at the San Gabriel Valley Shrine club. The funds from the dance will be used for the philanthropies of the department.

Mrs. Albert Clement is chairman and reservations may be made with her at DOuglas 7-1522 or with Mrs. Jack Wagner, DOuglas 7-0709. Mrs. Ernest Hutchins is decorations chairman for the Christmas dance.

White Breakfast To Be Held By District

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the Arcadia Woman's club, has urged the club to become more federation minded, reminding the membership of what is being accomplished throughout the world by federated clubwomen. In line with this, Mrs. Ivan Timmons, federation chairman, introduces speakers at each club meeting who give short reports on federation workshops they have attended.

Mrs. Timmons has announced the annual white breakfast and Christmas pageant of district, to be held Dec. 19 at 10:30 a. m. at First Congregational church, 535 South Hoover street, Los Angeles. Those wishing to make reservations are asked to call Mrs. Timmons.

The Arcadia club is interested in the Christmas activities of district which will include; cash gifts to the uncompensated veterans at the U.S. Veterans Administration hospital at Sawtelle a party for the veterans of the Women's ward of the U. S. Veterans Administration hospital at San Fernando; parties for the veterans of the U.S. Veterans Administration hospital at Long Beach.

The California history and landmarks conference and Christmas luncheon will be held Friday, Dec. 12 at noon at La Golondrina Mexican cafe in Olivera street. There will also be the annual Christmas party of the Los Angeles County Federation at Rancho Los Amigos, when many club members wish to take gifts.

Arcadia Woman's Club To Hold Traditional Christmas Parties

Traditional Christmas celebrations will be held at the Woman's club of Arcadia starting today when the music and drama departments will celebrate a joint party in the solarium of the clubhouse. Following this, each department will present a program and Christmas carols will be sung. This year instead of the usual exchange of gifts by members a donation of 50 cents will be brought by each lady to take care of a gift the courtesy of the Standard Oil company. For reservations call Mrs. Elmer Godfrey at DOuglas 7-2974.

The annual Christmas dinner party of the club promises to be a gala affair this year. It will be held Saturday night and will start at 6:30 p. m. with a potluck supper, followed by cards and dancing. There will be a gift exchange, not to exceed 50 cents. Ladies are asked to bring gifts for ladies, and men for men. In the past, Santa Claus has been present and his appearance is expected again this year. A to two charities.

The garden department will hold its annual party Wednesday at 11 a. m. sharp when a buffet brunch will be served for 50 cents. The program at 1 p. m. will be given through lot of fun is promised for all.

The international relations department and California history and landmarks departments are combining their Christmas parties and will celebrate around the Christmas tree in the foyer of the clubhouse on Dec. 15. There will be a potluck luncheon at noon followed by a program and Christmas music. All club members are invited.

The Dec. 17 general meeting of the club will be the Christmas celebration and a delicious turkey dinner is being prepared by Mrs. Bruce McAbery and her committee. There will be a Christmas program by the drama department and Christmas carols you love will be sung by the music department. Special guests of the day will be Arcadia ministers and their wives. During the afternoon program, Margaret Mendenhall will review a gay selection of Christmas books.

Club Members Hear Talk on Beauty

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Scott of the Magic Mirror Beauty salon were the featured program of Welcome Wagon club luncheon on Dec. 1 at Carpenter's Santa Anitan. Mrs. Scott gave an enlightening talk on individual hair styling, shampoo, haircut, permanent waving, hair tinting and care of the scalp. Mr. Scott demonstrated his skill in hair cutting and styling on three of the newcomers as models. A booklet, "Put Your Best Face Forward," was presented to each newcomer.

At the close of the program, the customary philanthropic project of helping a needy family at Christmas was carried out. Each newcomer donated supplies and fun for a Christmas basket and a turkey dinner, along with a gift order for toys and the tree to be given to the family for Christmas.

Club Section Hears Story

Taxco silver shops, the floating gardens of Xochimilcho, the impressive ancient ruins of Teotihuaca, the colorful cities of Guadalajara, Acapulco, Cuernavaca, Penefil, Puebla, Vera Cruz, and Mexico City itself entered the kaleidoscopic picture of Mexico presented to members of the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia when Mrs. John A. Renshaw was the speaker at its recent meeting.

Mrs. Renshaw, who is special events chairman of the department, has just returned from a jaunt to Mexico, and she displayed an array of jewelry, leatherwork, pottery, glass, basketware, jade, rebozos, huaraches, embroidery, and lacquerware to illustrate her travels. The returned visitor brought out vivid contrasts in Mexico as she touched on the national highway program, indifference to sanitation and conveniences, the meager economy of the people, the rich abundance of flowers and natural growth. "Everyone should seize the opportunity to go outside America, if only briefly, to contrast what we have here with the lot of others in order to truly appreciate what America means," concluded Mrs. Renshaw.

Members enjoyed a Thanksgiving potluck luncheon, traditional in the department, followed by a business meeting at which Mrs. J. E. Hutton, department chairman, presided, assisted by Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, secretary.

No meeting will be held on the department's regular date due to its proximity to Christmas, but members will join the international relations department at its potluck luncheon and Christmas music party on Monday, Dec. 15. The California history and landmark department's January meeting will be a field trip to the Southwest museum.

Woman's Club Group To Hold White Christmas Ball on Dec. 20

"Don your best bib and tucker, join a party and make this a gala affair," is the invitation extended by members of the evening department of the Woman's club of Arcadia, to club members and their friends to attend the White Christmas ball to be given Dec. 20 from 8:30 p. m. to 1 a. m. Music for the dancers will be provided by Les Anderson's orchestra, there will be refreshments and door prizes, and a delightful evening has been promised.

The dance is a benefit to raise funds for the many philanthropic projects of the evening department. Tickets are $2.50 a couple and there are a limited number of tickets available. Telephone orders are being taken by Mrs. Albert Clement, DOuglas 7-1522, and Mrs. Jack Wagner, DOuglas 7-0709.

Mrs. Ernest Hutchins, chairman of decorations, will be assisted by Mr. Hutchins, the A. P. Stuhrmans, Mrs. W. D. Gibbs, Mrs. Robert Munro and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Langlois. Prizes will be donated by the Bradners, Titgemeyers, Wagners, Winchells, Towsleys, Clarksons, Hutchins, Clements, Langlois and Marshs.

The department recently held a dinner meeting at the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse and at a short business session plans were discussed for decorations, door prizes and other details of the dance. Following dinner, the group danced and played charades.

Those enjoying the evening were Messrs. and Mmes. W. S. Bradner, R. W. Titgemeyer, Jack Wagner, Verne Winchell, Verne Woodruff, Albert J. Clement, Ernest Hutchins, A. P. Stuhrman, Earl C. Towsley, Gene Clarkson, Sidney Koppel and Allen Langlois.

Evening Group Wraps Dolls, Plans Christmas Dance

Culmination of all their Christmas plans took place at the home of Mrs. Richard Marsh, 500 South Old Ranch road, last Monday evening, Dec. 8, when the evening department of the Arcadia Woman's club held its meeting. Mrs. Verne Winchell, chairman of the department, presided.

The main item of business for the evening was the wrapping of 50 dolls which were dressed by the members and a few friends, in gay Christmas wrappings for the half-orphans of Los Angeles county. Each doll had at least two complete outfits, some many more, which included nightgowns, pajamas, kimonas, slips, dresses, skating outfits, dance outfits, blankets and sheets. Such an array of lovely, beautifully-dressed dolls was a sight to behold, and certainly will make a joyous Christmas day for many a girl who otherwise might not have had one. The group also decided to purchase sweaters to match the 15 skirts which the 4-H club girls are making for the older half-orphans. These items, according to Mrs. Robert A. Munro, welfare chairman, will probably be the only new items they will receive all year, as they generally get just castoffs, worn and faded.

Naturally, the "White Christmas" dance to be held Saturday, Dec. 20, at the San Gabriel Valley Shrine club was discussed. Mrs. Ernest Hutchins, decorations chairman, announced her committee had all the decorations taken care of and thanked them for their help. Mrs. Albert Clement, dance chairman, said a few tickets were still available to outside persons, if they will contact her at DOuglas 7-1522, she will be glad to furnish them with tickets. It is hoped the benefit will be so successful that it will become an annual affair, and from all the plans it looks like it will be a gala occasion for all. Many members announced plans for pre-dance parties at their homes, among whom are Messrs. and Mmes. Gene Clarkson, A. P. Stuhrman, Tom Kemp, W. S. Bradner, Jack Wagner and Verne Winchell, with others in the making.

The evening closed with refreshments served by the hostess to Mmes. Thomas B. Kemp, Carl Hoglund, Gene Clarkson, L. B. Lee, Verne Winchell, J. Wagner, Ernest Hutchins, Robert A. Munro, James Skinner, Alan Langlois, A. J. Clement, A. P. Stuhrman, Earl C. Towsley, Chris J. Schleeweis, William S. Bradner, Verne Woodruff and guests Mmes. Alfred Willey and John Barry.

Fine Musical Program Given at Woman's Club

"The holiday season approaches and our hopes are lifted on high with spiritual peace that comes to us at Christmastime. May the new year bring to you everything your heart desires and may your life be filled with love, enriched by the joy of service to others," was the Christmas message of Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the Arcadia Woman's club at the regular luncheon meeting on Dec. 3. A program of outstanding music and an interesting luncheon speaker, as well as a good lunch was provided for the 175 happy luncheon guests.

Col. Abbott Boone, retired Army officer, painted a vivid and realistic picture of the international situation confronting the Eisenhower administration. He quoted Woodrow Wilson saying "Friendship is the only cement that will hold the world together," and throughout his down-to-earth remarks ran the vein of hope that world peace could be brought about.

Col. Boone, who stated that the foreign situation is the most important problem confronting the country, said "The 20th Century is a period of revolution and no mortal man can forsee how we can solve our problems." He answered the critics who had deplored a military man as president, stating that the clear, precise and trained thinking of the military man would be an asset at this time. He also stated that Eisenhower was a man who gathered information from all channels, weighed it and then worked out the best possible answer.

Col. Boone brought out that Lenin's policy had been to break the Western Powers economically and to then step in and take over, and he warned "Beware America lest the threat of Russian Communists come true."

Col. Boone was introduced by Mrs. N. E. Stadig, program chairman of the international relations department. Mrs. Richard Hilf, chairman of the department, introduced Mrs. Stadig and other officers: Mrs. Lucy Wyss, Mrs. J. P. Ross, Mrs. Clara Morris, Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. Robert Lane. Mrs. Earl Dettra, Americanism chairman, spoke on the 8-point program to be followed and reminded members of the celebration of Bill of Rights week.

Porter, district safety chairman, and member and past president of the Monrovia Woman's club, was introduced by Mrs. Jesse Balser, district vice-chairman of safety.

Mrs. A. C. Heilman, membership chairman, introduced Mrs. Oliver Karr, Mrs. Leslie Schottler, Mrs. J. P. Cangswich and Mrs. C. L. Marvin. Guests introduced were Mmes. H. E. White, M. R. Clark, David Care, K. J. Metcalf, Archie W. Swan, Roy Hitt, Harry Woodbury, D. A. Powell, Willis Hayes, A. Roeder, Harold Sexsmith, L. V. Shepherd, John Mersch and R. L. Johnson.

Mrs. Floyd Kingsley, luncheon chairman, introduced her committee: Mmes. Robert Lane, co-chairman, Simon Walters, Florence Duffy, Emma Meade, Richard Barro, James Sweatt, Leslie Whittington and Clyde Dysart.

Mrs. Verne Winchell, philanthropy chairman, asked that $25 be used for Rancho Los Amigos and $5 for a woman veteran at the San Fernando hospital for Christmas. This was approved by the membership.

Mrs. Simpson expressed her pleasure with the departments of the club stating that each one was doing something outstanding for the club as a whole.

Following a short intermission, the Festival Singers presented a lovely program, the best one of the club year, and they were received with enthusiasm by the membership.

The program opened with a group of Christmas carols followed by operatic selections and closed with a few light numbers.

Original Show Given by Junior Club

Young matrons seen entering the Arcadia Woman's clubhouse last Friday night dressed in robes, housecoats, lounging pajamas and nightgowns, with pillows and presents tucked under their arms, were not bound for a slumber party, but for the annual Christmas party of the Junior Woman's club. The theme was "The Night Before Christmas," which was carried out throughout the festive evening.

Each girl brought a package of food to be distributed in baskets to needy families and hams will also be purchased. The group decided also to buy toys for Jackie Thrall's children.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Gerald Connor, letters of thanks from soldiers in Korea who received THANX packages sent by the club were read by Mrs. Wade Burchell, chairman.

An impressive candlelight ceremony initiated the following new members: Mrs. Connor, Mrs. Edward Schaar, first vice-president, Mrs. William Zima, and Mrs. Philip A. Libby, honorary sponsor, conducted the ceremony; and Mmes. John Balthes Jr., Richard Jones, William Pennington, Milton Vogel, Paul Beach, Charles Gross, Edward Davis, Alfred Ward and Frank Vagasy.

The Christmas program was presented by the Fine Arts group headed by co-chairmen, Mrs. Robert Knerl and Mrs. David Lester. It was an original marionette show on with the theme "The Night Before Christmas." Standing in the light of the decorated Christmas tree, Mrs. Knerl gave the Christmas reading, setting the mood for the surprise puppet show. The successful performance will be repeated Saturday for children of the members.

Mrs. William Shaw, hostess, and her committee served ice cream and Christmas cookies and coffee following the program. The evening was climaxed by the appearance of a rare Santa Claus, Mrs. Robert Sibel, who had a gift for each junior in her sack.

CLUB MEMBERS TAKE PART IN CELEBRATION

Christmas in the early California manner was enjoyed by Mmes. J. E. Hutton, A. F. Hacquebord, and William Adams, representing the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia when they participated in the District C.F.W.C. California history and landmarks party on Friday, Dec. 12. Setting for the party was La Golondrina on Olvera street, where Sra. Castillo de Bonzo acted as hostess under the direction of Mrs. George Combs of Long Beach, District California history and landmarks chairman.

The three Arcadians joined 175 enthusiasts from throughout the district at a typical early California luncheon, followed by an explanation of the significance and an enactment of "Las Posadas" (the Inns), "Los Peregrinos" (the Travelers), and "Los Pastores" (the Shepherds). These dramatizations and the accompany-music were used by the Franciscans during the 17th century in introducing Christianity to the new world, and their annual presentation has become part of the Mexican and early California Christmas tradition. Typical Mexican fiesta dances and songs followed.

All club members are reminded of the outdoor presentation of "Las Posadas" on Olvera street being held until Dec. 24, inclusive. The candlelight procession starts nightly at 8 p. m. from the old Lugo adobe Fiesta music for public participation follows. Several department members, with their families, are planning to drive in, and anyone desiring to join the group is invited to call Mrs. Hacquebord, department secretary, at CUmberland 5-2892.

AUTHOR TALKS ON BOOKS TO CLUB SECTION

Margaret Stimson Richardson of Arcadia, captivated her audience, members of the literature department of the Arcadia Woman's club, when she related her experiences leading up to writing her children's books.

She is the author of "Seven Little Piffiesniffs," released last August by Abingdon-Cokesbury Press, and "A Handful of Nuggets," recently released by Steck company of Austin, Tex. "The Seven Little Piffiesniffs" is a collection of 10 stories telling the adventures of the Piffiesniffs and is for children from 5 to 9 years.

Not only children, but adults, are interested in "A Handful of Nuggets," which is a collection of 33 gold mining tales containing the lore of the Old West. Mrs. Richardson, who was a club editor for the Los Angeles Examiner and married the city editor, autographed books for her listeners.

The meeting was the regular kaffee klatsch of the department and was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Dettra, 502 South Drake road. Hostesses were Mrs. Leonard Short, Mrs. Archie Wilson, Mrs. Freeman Gates and Mrs. Katherine Brown.

Mrs. Charles Ganther presided at a short business meeting. In lieu of the regular exchange of gifts, members brought money which will be used to buy clothing for needy children.

Christmas Celebrated at Woman's Club of Arcadia

Annual Christmas luncheon meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia held last Wednesday in a beautifully decorated clubhouse, was a joyous occasion with 240 members and guests sitting down to tables gay with holiday decor for a delicious turkey luncheon. Special guests of the day were ministers of Arcadia and their wives. Highlighting the luncheon period was the presentation of "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," by the combined music and drama departments of the club.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, extended a cordial welcome to all saying "I am thankful that so many of you are present to celebrate Christmas with friends in your clubhouse." She paid tribute to the ministers by saying your fine leadership is largely responsible for the high moral tone of the community.

Mrs. J. V. Covell, Bible chairman, stated that all ministers of Arcadia and their wives had been invited to be guests of the club but several were unable to attend. Those introduced were Dr. J. Davis Barnard, pastor of the Arcadia Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Barnard; the Rev. A. Leonard Gilmour, pastor of the Arcadia Friends church, and Mrs. Gilmour; the Rev. Henry Ewan, vicar of the Church of the Transfiguration, and Mrs. Ewan; the Rev. Thatcher Jordan, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and Mrs. Jordan; the Rev. R. Beecher Damron, pastor of the Arcadia Congregational church; the Rev. Gerald O'Keefe, pastor of Holy Angels Catholic church. Invited but unable to attend were the Rev. William E. Bernard of the American Lutheran church and Mrs. Bernard; the Rev. Bernard Ibershoff of the Christian Reformed church and Mrs. Ibershoff; the Rev. Bennie Flint of the First Baptist church and Mrs. Flint; the Rev. Gordon Whipple of the Grace church and Mrs. Whipple; the Rev. S. H. Hall, of the Arcadia Church of Christ and Mrs. Hall. The invocation was given by Dr. Barnard and the benediction was given by Father O'Keeffe.

The tables were decked with Christmas ornaments, greenery and red tapers with special Christmas place cards; red berries and greenery decorated the stage, the mantel in the foyer held an unusual arrangement and the memorial niche held a statue. Mrs. Katherine Brown introduced her committee; Mrs. Phillip Libby, Mrs. Freeman Gates, Mrs. Archie Wilson, Mrs. John Neuviller, Mrs. L. J. Stephen, and Mrs. Katherine Ward.

Mrs. Simpson reminded members of the club of the cooperation in all ways that the merchants of Arcadia have extended to the club and she suggested that they show their appreciation by shopping in Arcadia, particularly at the Christmas season.

Welcomed by the president was Mrs. Charles Lumpkin, charter member and founder of the music department of the club. Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, first vice-president, was welcomed back to the club after a month's absence. Mrs. Mabel Dressler, a past president of the club, was also present.

The delicious luncheon was in charge of Mrs. Bruce McAbery and a large committee.

Mrs. A. C. Heilman, membership chairman, introduced new members; Mrs. Ray E. Hitt, Mrs. Arthur B. Warner, Mrs. Edward Lobel, Mrs. Earl Towsley, Mrs. Bernie Miller, and Mrs. Gerald Miller. Corsages of pink and green, the club colors, made by Mrs. Heilman and Mrs. E. J. Verhoef, were presented to the new members.

Happy birthday was sung to members having birthdays in December and for Mrs. Charles Billings, first president of the club, who has reached her 90th birthday.

Mrs. Simpson reminded members of the poetry contest which is being conducted by the literature department and each member is asked to contribute a poem or poems for a book which will be compiled as a memento for members. It was designed to be comparable to the cook book made by members 20 years ago.

The program was turned over to the music and drama departments, whose chairmen, Mrs. E. J. Frentress and Mrs. W. P. Sorenson, introduced their officers, before the presentation of the program.

Mrs. Fred Gamroth was narrator of the beautiful story and the chorus led by Mrs. Thatcher Jordan, sang beautifully the familiar and loved carols of "Deck the Hall," "Carols of Bells," "Never was a Child So Lovely," "Jesu Bambino" and "O Holy Night." Miss Mary Valentine accompanied at the piano and Mrs. Clark Bridgeman on the flute.

Taking part in the chorus were Mmes. Jessie Stewart, Roy Regnier, Florence MacRorie, Bertha Nichols, Bruce McAbery, John Scull, LeRoy Anderson, M. M. Trew, Fred Gamroth, John Hutton, E. J. Frentress, Albert Green, Ivan Timmons, Sorenson, Mary Kemp, Clint Woodruff and A. P. Stuhrman.

Following the luncheon intermission, a delightful review of Christmas plays was given by Margaret Mendenhall.

Club Section Aids Chamber With Project

An enthusiastic reception was accorded the Chamber of Commerce's Arcadia 50th Anniversary windshield sticker emblem when it was presented to members of the Woman's club of Arcadia at its luncheon meeting on Wednesday, March 18, by the California history and landmarks department. The California history and landmarks department is cooperating with the Chamber's plans for official observance of the 50th birthday, which falls in July, but will be recognized at a city-wide civic celebration late in September or early in October.

Three hundred of the stickers, which were designed by a committee headed by Deco Van Horn, were distributed in the foyer by the department officers, Mmes. J. E. Hutton, William MacArthur and A. F. Hacquebord. The colorful stickers will continue to be available at all club department meetings during the next month. Use of the stickers will advertise the birthday.

A word of advice is in order as to the placement of the stickers on windshields. The only legal place for them, according to Police Chief Neil Anderson, is the extreme lower right-hand corner of the front windshield.

'Junior Day' To Be Held At Clubhouse

"Honoring Our Juniors" will be the theme of Wednesday's meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia and members of Arcadia Junior Woman's club will be honor guests.

This meeting will mark the first annual observance of Junior day, which was established by this year's board as a day when senior and junior members may discuss jointly their common problems and get personally acquainted.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, club president, will be in charge of the day. Mrs. Gerard Connor, president of the Arcadia Juniors will be present, and Mrs. Eugene Nott of Arcadia, president of the Los Angeles District CFWC Junior clubs, also will be present.

Following the luncheon intermission, Mrs. W. C. Winchester, program chairman, will introduce Bob Swanson in "Fantasy of Magic." He will present a sparkling magical review as modern as the day after tomorrow. Each mystery has been carefully selected for its perplexity, humor and eye-appeal, and all are presented in a rapid, fascinating manner. The entire production is synchronized with a musical score and augmented by special lighting and sound effects. Mr. Swanson also gives the cultural background of magic, stories of magic, old and new, and its development throughout the centuries.

Luncheon will be served as usual at 11:30 a. m. Reservations are asked to be in by tonight. Call Mrs. Herman Kambeitz, DOuglas 7-3672, Mrs. Forest Allen, DOuglas 7-5360 or Mrs. Elizabeth M. Winans, DOuglas 7-4584.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB OF ARCADIA

CALENDAR FOR JANUARY - 1953

Happy New Year, Everybody!

Jan. 7 - Reciprocity Day. In true Federation tradition we have invited the Presidents of Federated Women's Clubs in nearby cities to be our guests and more than twenty-one have accepted. Mrs. Joseph Wenger, C. F. W. President at large, will speak and other District and County officers will be present. This day is a neighborly gesture. Plan to attend to help us be neighborly and make a good showing before our Federation officers. The afternoon program is excellent, ranging from pathos to sheer comedy by Betty Roadman. Make reservations early.

Jan. 12 - Drama Dept. will meet at the home of Mrs. E. J. Frentress, 260 W. Camino Real, at 10 o'clock. Members will be called on to make extemporaneous speeches of 4 minutes each on any subject of Mrs. Green's choice. Bring sandwich, coffee and dessert served by the hostesses.

Jan. 12 - The Evening Division will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. A. P. Stuhrman, 1309 San Carlos Road.

Jan. 13 - The Art Dept. will meet at 12 noon in the solarium of the clubhouse. Bring sandwich, coffee will be served. Following luncheon, Miss Alice La Rouche will demonstrate the basic principles of lamp shade making. All club members invited.

Jan. 14 - Garden Dept. regular luncheon and meeting at 12 noon in the solarium. Don't forget your flower arrangements - let everyone bring one each time. After the meeting there will be a surprise demonstration. Don't miss it. Please note change of time of pot-luck dinner on January 30th!

Jan. 17 - Is Social Night. There will be the usual pot-luck dinner at 6:30 followed by cards and dancing. These social evenings are very pleasant with good times for everybody. Come and enjoy them with us.

Jan. 20 - Regular meeting of the Literature Dept. at 9:30 at the home of Mrs. Margaret Brown, 1428 Oak Meadow Rd. The Kaffee Klatch will be followed by a program to be announced later. Club members send in your poetry.

Jan. 21 - Regular meeting, 11:30 luncheon. The subject of the luncheon speaker, "Health can be Yours," deals with cancer research prevention. No woman can afford to be indifferent to this topic. Forewarned is forearmed! Afternoon Book Review by Margaret Mendenhall will be current events and Biographies.

Arcadia Woman's Club To Observe Reciprocity Day

The Woman's club of Arcadia will observe its annual Reciprocity day Wednesday at the regular luncheon meeting at 11:30 a. m. Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, will welcome special guests at this annual celebration of federated clubs to promote friendliness and neighborliness.

Special guest and luncheon speaker will be Mrs. Joseph C. Wenger, board member of General Federated Women's clubs, dean of chairmen for CFWC, and past president of Los Angeles district. The other special guest will be Mrs. J. Ellsworth Hixson, president of Los Angeles county Federation of Women's clubs. In addition other honoree guests will be the presidents of 23 federated clubs in nearby cities. Mrs. Wenger's topic will be based on the federation slogan "Strength United is Stronger."

BETTY ROADMAN
. . . guest

Mrs. Ivan Timmons, federation secretary, is in charge of arrangements and she will be assisted by members of the reception and hospitality committees. Mrs. J. Victor Covell will be luncheon chairman, and decorations, to be carried out in the club colors of pink and green, will be done by Mrs. Homer Brown and Mrs. S. J. Nock.

Following the luncheon intermission, Mrs. William C. Winchester, program chairman, will introduce Betty Roadman, actress, author, lecturer and impersonator. An unusual speaker and radio personality, Miss Roadman is much more than an entertainer. She has a subtle art which is so completely natural that it seems not to be art at all, and therein lies her real artistry. Her striking appearance and radiant personality, her full and varied repertoire, her beautiful voice and perfect diction, her wide experience on stage, screen and platform all combine to make her an outstanding artist.

During a 28 years residence in Hollywood, Betty Roadman has played many character roles in motion pictures and on the legitimate stage. Recently she toured America with Charlotte Greenwood playing one of the Norwegian-American sisters in "I Remember Mama." In the immediate postwar days, she spent seven months in the Forward Islands of the Pacific where she went with an entertainment unit out of New York taking a touch of home and mother to thousands of service men stationed on those bleak, coral rocks. In addition, Miss Roadman's programs include one-act and full length plays, monologues, character sketches, poetry and human interest stories with a wealth of material that appeals to varied audiences.

Luncheon reservations are requested by tonight. Call Mrs. Herman Kambietz, DOuglas 7-3672 or Mrs. Forest Allen, DOuglas 7-5360.

Dr. Spencer Talks at Junior Club

Members of the Arcadia Junior Women's club were informed on the cancer problem at their meeting in the Arcadia Women's clubhouse Jan. 9 when J. R. Spencer MD, staff member of Huntington Memorial hospital in Pasadena, was guest speaker.

Dr. Spencer discussed the problems presented by the disease and described the three-fold program of research, education and service by which the American Cancer society is combating cancer's ravages on a national basis. Preceding Dr. Spencer's talk, two films produced under the direction of the society, "Breast Self-Examination" and "Traitor Within," were shown.

The program was arranged by Mrs. Edward Scharr, first vice-president and program chairman of the Junior Woman's club, in conjunction with Mrs. Glennon B. Boldeman, Arcadia area chairman for the American Cancer society's Los Angeles branch, and Mrs. George Moffat, who will serve as Arcadia area campaign chairman during the national Cancer Crusade in April.

Area office of the society serving Arcadia is located at 180 South Euclid avenue, Pasadena.

Special Guests Welcomed By Arcadia Woman's Club

Annual observance of Reciprocity day by the Woman's Club of Arcadia last Wednesday at a luncheon meeting proved to be a gala and long-to-be-remembered day. Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, graciously welcomed the 200 members and guests who were seated at luncheon tables in the auditorium and solarium. The afternoon program was presented by Betty Roadman, actress, lecturer and impersonator, who gave an outstanding performance.

Special guests of the day were Mrs. Joseph C. Wenger, board member of General Federated Women's clubs, dean for California Federated Women's clubs and past president of Los Angeles District, CFWC; Mrs. J. Ellsworth Hixson, president of the Los Angeles county, FWC, and Mrs. Alan W. Young, president of Los Angeles District, CFWC, and the presidents of 24 Women's clubs in the surrounding area.

The club colors of green and pink were carried out in the decorations of the beautiful clubhouse. Bouquets of Scotch heather decked the speaker's table and lovely pink carnation fiber flowers and green tapers were placed on a center of pink crepe paper. Attractive place cards were at each place and visitors received lovely corsages.

In welcoming the guests, the president said, "We pay tribute today to state, district and county officers, and we pay tribute to the federation that sponsors this activity of neighborliness and friendliness." to the visiting clubwomen she said, "When you go home after today the song may be ended but the melody of your presence will linger with us."

CHAIRMAN

She introduced Mrs. Ivan C. Timmons, federation secretary, as coordinator of the day, who in turn welcomed the guests as "neighbors." She stated that the celebration of Reciprocity day strengthens the bond between federation and the individual clubs. She also stated that many women of the local club attend federation conferences and that once a month chairmen give a report at the regular club meeting.

Mrs. Timmons introduced Mrs. Bruce McAbery, district scholarship committee chairman, and Mrs. Jesse Balser, district safety committee vice-chairman. The visiting presidents were introduced by members of the [illegible] dena, Baldwin Park, Bella Vista, Covina, El Monte, Highland Park, Michillinda, Monrovia, Monterey Park, Montebello, Pasadena Washington Heights, Pasadena, Ramona, Rosemead, Wilmar, San Gabriel, Sierra Madre, South Pasadena, Temple City, Alhambra Roundtable, Alhambra Tuesday club, Los Angeles Breakfast club and Pasadena Study club.

Mrs. Simpson complimented Mrs. Timmons as chairman of the day and stated that corsages worn by the guests had been made by the daughter of Mrs. Timmons. In charge of decorations were Mrs. S. J. Nock, chairman of the month, Mrs. Frank Newton, Mrs. Ralph Hankins, Mrs. Charles Scholl and Mrs. W. R. Chapman, who made the 300 fiber carnations. Mrs. E. J. Verhoef decorates the memorial niche. Mrs. Robert Lane made the place cards.

Mrs. John Scull, chairman of the Council of International clubs, read the first letter to be received from a woman in Germany in which she thanked the Arcadia club for its gesture of friendship. Mrs. Simpson stated that the council was established to promote international understanding among women. The president announced an essay contest for the nine sponsored groups of Camp Fire, Girl Scouts and Brownies, the winner to be announced on March 28 when the club will stage a party for the youth groups.

During luncheon the choir of the music department sang the "Collect" of GFWC. Directed by Mrs. Thatcher Jordan, the choir consists of Mmes. Roy Regnier, Charles Stewart, E. J. Frentress, Robert Ferrante, Albert Green, Bertha Nichols, Bruce McAbery, A. P. Stuhrman, John Scull, Woodruff, John Hutton, LeRoy Anderson, Mary Kemp, W. P. Sorenson and M. M. Trew.

A delicious ham luncheon was served by Mrs. J. V. Covell and her committee, Mmes. Joe Watson, B. E. Turner, Ray Kennett, Phyllis Miller, Edward Heiss, Dillon, J. K. Weems, E. J. Frentress, R. A. Young, Hamblin and Leigh.

Following intermission, Mrs. W. C. Winchester, program chairman, introduced Miss Roadman, who lived up to her reputation as "One of the best loved entertainers on the platform today." She possessed a warmth and charm which immediately found a response in the hearts and minds of her listeners. Her fine program received an enthusiastic applause.

Mrs. Timmons introduced Mrs. Hixson who stated her pleasure at being present and said, "As women of federation, let us hope that we can be big in the work that is to be done in the coming year." Mrs. Young extended new year's greetings and stated that federation is planning to carry out exceptional projects and we hope to make the months ahead outstanding ones. She announced a First Aid council to be held on Jan. 21.

Mrs. Wenger, public relations officer of the state and luncheon speaker, was a resident of Arcadia in her early club years. She expressed her pleasure in Reciprocity day by which women become better acquainted with federation. She read a letter from Mrs. Oscar Ahlgren, CFWC president, Washington, DC, who was chosen by the German government to go to Germany [illegible]

Excerpts from the letter were as follows: "At the last election 80 per cent of the German people went to the polls and only 5 per cent voted Communistic. Approximately 20,000 a month come across the border from the Soviet zone, creating a housing and food problem. The progress made by German women is thrilling, they are doing a wonderful job and by March 31 they will have equal rights with men. The Freedom Bell has a significance for all, school children make pilgrimmages to the bell and when it rings all know that it means freedom." She closed the letter by describing the blockade at the east-west barrier—a woman on one side with a red flag, representing atheism, fear and eternal night, and the other side standing for God and freedom.

Nearby Club Presidents Guests At Arcadia Reciprocity

Arcadia Woman's Club held its annual reciprocity day Wednesday with more than 20 club presidents from nearby cities present as special guests to observe the day marked to promote friendliness and neighborliness.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, presided, introducing the out-of-town representatives; also State and District officers, Mrs. Joseph C. Wenger and Mrs. Allen W. Young.

As luncheon speaker, Mrs. Wenger, a former Arcadian, and many times a visitor at the club, told about a letter received from a German woman's club president. She related that at a recent election in West Germany, 80 per cent of the populace voted and "only 5 per cent for Communism." The communication further stated that "by March 31 the German women will have equal rights."

More than 200 enjoyed the luncheon in charge of Mrs. J. Victor Covell and her committee.

Betty Roadman, introduced by Mrs. William C. Winchester, program chairman, an actress, author, lecturer and impersonator, entertained the members and guests during the afternoon.

Clubwomen To Hear Talk At Luncheon

Marye Shannon Harrington, author, lecturer and counselor, will be luncheon speaker Wednesday at the regular meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia.

Miss Harrington devotes her time to the Cancer Prevention Society clinic and her talk will be on the development and work of the clinic. She is a former federation lecturer on psychology and current events, is state regent of the Daughters of American Colonists and registrar general of Colonial Dames. Mrs. Harrington has a message that appeals to all, audiences are pleased with her personality, her talent and her poise.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, will give a report on the Los Angeles county meeting and tea which she attended on Monday. The birthday party of Los Angeles District will be held Wednesday and as the date conflicts with the meeting day of the Arcadia club, none of the officers will be present. However, the club sent a monetary gift. It is through the birthday party that district maintains and operates its beautiful headquarters at 2103 South Hobart boulevard in Los Angeles.

Announcement will be made of the progress being made on the history of the club, which is being recorded for the first time under the chairmanship of Mrs. Emma Mead and the following committee: Mmes. J. K. Weems, Charles F. Ganther, John P. Ross, Floyd K. Kingsley, Michael Duffy, A. L. Parker and W. D. Gibbs.

Following the luncheon intermission, Margaret Mendenhall, popular book reviewer, who gives a program once a month at the club, will review current events and biographies.

Luncheon reservations should be made by tonight. Call Mrs. Herman Kambietz, chairman, DOuglas 7-3672, or Mrs. Forest Allen, DOuglas 7-5360.

ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB PASSES RESOLUTION ON FLOOD CONTROL

Arcadia Woman's club went on record last Wednesday at the regular luncheon meeting in passing a resolution that immediate action be taken on flood control in Arcadia, and that copies of the resolution be sent to California's representatives in Washington, DC.

President Mrs. John T. Simpson officiated, welcoming members and guests. She read a note from Mrs. Mabel Dressler, chairman of the auditing committee, in which she commended the treasurer, Mrs. John Balthes, for her splendid work. Others on the auditing committee are Mrs. Wood Glover and Mrs. J. Walter Genuit.

Another innovation taken by the club was to adopt a policy with the Junior Woman's club, which will promote understanding and friendship and closer relationship between the two clubs.

Mrs. Edward Heiss led the salute to the flag, Mrs. Roy Regnier led in singing of the national anthem, with Mrs. LeRoy Anderson at the piano. Mrs. J. V. Covell gave the devotional. Mrs. Simpson asked the membership to join with her in a moment of prayer for the husband of a member, Mrs. C. J. Smith. Mrs. Ivan Timmons, federation secretary, introduced Mrs. Jesse Balser, district safety chairman, who spoke on safety; Mrs. John Renshaw, who talked on the American home, and Mrs. E. J. Frentress, who talked on motion pictures.

New members introduced were Mrs. Lester Lee, Mrs. S. C. Kopel, Mrs. E. Clark and Mrs. Howard Williams. Mrs. William Weaver reported on the Bloodmobile, which will be in Arcadia on Feb. 16. Mrs. Albert Weickert, ways and means chairman, announced that a salad bar-card party will be held Feb. 12 at the clubhouse. Tickets will be $1, for reservations call Mrs. Weickert or Mrs. Lane. Another party is being planned for March 12 and a rummage sale will be held in April.

The luncheon committee consisted of Mmes. Edward Kaurin, C. F. Noack, Joseph Boggio, Rose Lane, George Wheeler, Charles Johnson, William LaRocque, Richard Stewart, Alfred LaRay and George Langsner.

The tables were attractively decorated in snow scenes with ice skaters by girls of the club-sponsored Brownie troop. The leaders, Mrs. R. Costner and Mrs. E. Mahoney were present. The speaker's table was beautifully decorated with magnolias made out of white crepe paper by Mrs. S. J. Nock and Mrs. W. R. Chapman. Red berries were placed in the foyer as were small pie pans covered in silver calling attention to the annual March of Dimes campaign, to which the club contributed $50.

Seated at the head table with the president were Mmes. Edward Ainsworth, Marye Shannon Harrington, speaker of the day; J. V. Covell, Richard Straub, Edward Heiss, Ivan Timmons, Jesse Balser, John Renshaw, Earl Dettra, Roy Regnier, LeRoy Anderson, Gerard Connor, Herman Kambeitz, Gregory Chase, John Balthes, Homer Brown, Costner, Mahoney, Nock, Thomas Connor Ralph Hankins, Walter Overton, and George Hart.

Mrs. Ainsworth introduced the luncheon speaker, who spoke on the founding of the Cancer Prevention clinic in Los Angeles, and the prevention of the disease.

Following luncheon intermission, Mrs. Margaret Mendenhall gave her usual interesting book review and current events.

Music Group Hosted by Lola Trew

"Harps in the Wind," the story of the singing Hutchinsons, was the interesting program presented by Mrs. Bruce McAbery and Mrs. Alice Wirth of Temple City to members of the music department of the Arcadia Woman's club at the Jan. 27 meeting. Mrs. M. M. Trew hosted the delightful meeting at her home, 25 South Second avenue. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Arnold Ayers, and Mrs. Thomas B. Kemp.

The book, reviewed by Mrs. Wirth, told the story of 16 "singing Hutchinsons," who founded the towns of Lynn, Mass., Hutchinson, Minn., and Hutchinson, Kan. They were instrumentalists, composers and singers, and their compositions included music for patriotic campaigns, the temperance movement and religion. "My Mother's Bible" was written by Asa Hutchinson. Mrs. McAbery illustrated the review by singing songs taken from a book, "Songs of Yesteryear."

Mrs. Edmund Maier displayed the anniversary calendar commemorating 200 years of John Sebastian Bach, which she received from Germany. The pictures on the calendar were excuted by Herman Stribel.

Mrs. Homer Sandberg introduced a guest, Mrs. Gordon Barlett of Saskatoon, Canada. Others present were Mmes. Floyd Henderson, Bertha Nichol, Clark Bridgman, A. H. Green, John Scull, J. V. Covell, John P. Ross, Thatcher Jordan, LeRoy Anderson, and Eugenia Griffin.

Home Advisory Director To Speak at Arcadia Woman's Club

The Woman's club of Arcadia will observe "Camellia Day," Wednesday, at the regular 11:30 a. m. luncheon in a clubhouse that will be decorated profusely with camellias. Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, will officiate.

Luncheon speaker will be Edgar Harrison Wileman, home advisory director of Barker brothers home advisory bureau. His topic will be "Latest Trends in Interior Decorating."

EDGAR H. WILEMAN
. . . authority

For more than 20 years Mr. Wileman has been an outstanding radio commentator on the subject of home furnishings. His program, "Backgrounds for Living" was presented during a period of 10 years, more than 1000 times with no single program being repeated. This record program has been replaced with the current television program where complete rooms are furnished and demonstrated.

Mr. Wileman's debut on television took place more than 10 years ago on the experimental Don Lee station. Today it is one of the outstanding programs of its kind in the entire nation and enjoys a popular listening audience rating.

He was born in London, England, and educated at the Roan schools, Greenwich, and at the Goldsmith institute, University of London. He received his early training at the Goodter studios, Regent street, London. He went to Buenos Aires, Argentina, as a designer and occupied a position as decorator and buyer of antiques for his firm. He has traveled extensively in Europe, South America and the United States, visiting factories, museums and art centers.

He joined Barker brothers in 1923 as lecturer and consulting decorator, and since 1926 has served as instructor of interior decoration for the University of California, extension division. At present he is in charge of Barker brothers home advisory bureau in Los Angeles.

Following the luncheon intermission, the popular book reviewer, Margaret Mendenhall, will give her usual interesting program.

Woman's Club Plans Annual Art Exhibit

Art department of the Woman's club of Arcadia will hold the second annual city-wide art exhibit on March 18 in the clubhouse, 324 South First avenue. All Arcadia artists are invited to exhibit their arts and crafts.

The first city-wide exhibit was held last year in the clubhouse as a project of the Build Freedom with Youth program of the Woman's club as a contribution to civic development and to give local artists an opportunity to show their work.

Plans for the exhibit were made at the regular meeting of the garden department on Feb. 10 in the solarium of the clubhouse. The afternoon was spent at Justine Wishek's studio where Dorothy Kushner, well known artist, exhibited her paintings and explained her interesting and fascinating technique in painting the abstract. She is the winner of many blue ribbons and her paintings have made shows all over the country.

The delightful day was concluded by Mrs. Wishek serving homemade cookies and Russian tea from a 300-year-old samovar.

CAMELLIA DAY OBSERVED BY WOMAN'S CLUB OF ARCADIA

Edgar Harrison Wileman, home advisory director for Barker brothers, was an entertaining and informative luncheon speaker last Wednesday, at the regular meeting of the Arcadia Woman's club. His topic was "The California Home and Its Furnishings." The clubhouse was a bower of camellias in observance of the annual celebration of Camellia day.

When Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, welcomed the 150 guests and members, she thanked the committee for the beautiful decorations and said, "Last meeting we paid tribute to Civic day, today is our family day." She called attention to the family-style luncheon prepared and served by Mrs. Joe Watson and her committee.

Mrs. Simpson thanked her house and grounds committee chairman for their splendid work during the year. Mrs. Thurman Keim is in charge of the clubhouse, and Mrs. Fuerst of the grounds. Mrs. Katherine Brown was in charge of decorations assisted by Mrs. C. F. Noack and Mrs. Edward Kaurin.

Mrs. Richard Straub, parliamentarian, read that portion of the by-laws which precedes the election of a nominating committee. Following this the following committee was named: Mrs. J. K. Weems, chairman; Mrs. Archie Wilson, Mrs. E. J. Frentress, Mrs. Leslie Campbell and Mrs. Earl Dettra. Alternates named were Mrs. John Scull, Mrs. Elmer Godfrey, Mrs. E. J. Verhoef, Mrs. John P. Junior Club Plans Tea Style Show

Arcadia Junior Woman's club is planning a tea fashion show to be held at the Santa Anita school cafetorium, Saturday, March 14. Nash's of Pasadena will stage the showing of new spring fashions. The tea is open to the public, and reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Richard Swanson, DOuglas 7-4677. Proceeds from the show will be used for the juniors' philanthropies.

At the Feb. 13 business meeting, members decided as this month's project to furnish all the art supplies for the Little Flower Missionary home of Los Angeles for the rest of the school year. Mrs. Glenn Smith, penny arts chairman, is in charge. Also a vote was taken to pay for diaper service for Mrs. Jackie Thrall.

The juniors signed a petition asking for life imprisonment for offenders selling narcotics. This petition was sent to Governor Warren.

Mrs. Walter High, junior club representative to the school advisory committee, reported on the plans for enlarging the high school. The club voted to go along with the recommendations of the committee.

The busy evening was climaxed by the serving of coffee and cake and a white elephant sale.

Salad Bar Draws Large Attendance

A log cabin filled with red roses arranged along a red and blue runner on a white tablecloth was the attractive and appropriate arrangement carried out at the "salad" table for the salad bar luncheon given Feb. 12 at the Arcadia Woman's club.

The successful party was sponsored by the ways and means committee which is headed by Mrs. Albert Weickert as chairman. A beautiful bouquet of red roses was placed in the foyer of the clubhouse, and each card table held a small basket of dates wrapped in red cellophane tied with blue and white ribbon carrying out the color scheme. Mrs. E. J. Verhoef was in charge of decorations.

Small baskets of dates and door prizes of fancy packaged dates and raisins were donated by Mrs. Ed Ainsworth. Each lady also received either a sample bottle of toilet water or sachet powder by the courtesy of the Fuller Brush company. Homemade candy was sold by the plateful for each table and to be taken home. Mrs. Richard Stewart was in charge of the candy, which was made by members of the committee.

Committee members working on the project were Mmes Weickert, E. V. Alvarez, Thomas Bandy, M. Duffy, J. P. Elliott, E. R. Godfrey, E. Kaurin, R. H. Lane, W. B. Price, N. Schilz, R. C. Stewart, T. L. Sparks, M. Uhl and E. J. Verhoef.

Next project of the ways and means committee will be a buffet luncheon on March 12 and an interesting and varied menu is being planned for a complete luncheon. Cards will be played in the afternoon. There will be table prizes and door prizes. Mrs. Weickert urges club members to save the date and bring their friends.

The committee is collecting rummage now for the annual rummage sale to be held April 10 in West Arcadia. Collection center is Rose Lane's garage.

BIKE NEEDED BY WOMEN'S CLUB SECTION

Members of the evening department of the Arcadia Woman's club are still seeking a bicycle, either one that they can buy second-hand or one that is contributed that they can repair and give to an eight-year-old half-orphan the group has adopted. The little girl has no parents and lives with her grandmother. She is suffering from muscular dystrophy and it was not thought possible that she would ever have the use of her legs until recently, and the doctor thinks that a bicycle will help her. Anyone having a bicycle that they would care to donate is asked to call Mrs. John Barry at DOuglas 7-0968.

Discussion was held on this at the regular social meeting of the section held last week at the home of Mrs. Verne Woodruff, 524 Gloria road.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. James Skinner won high prize for bridge and Mrs. Allen Langlois won high in canasta.

Those present were Mmes. Barry, Robert Munro, William Dillon, Richard Marsh, Lester Lee, Anthony Anger, Skinner, William Bradner, Alfred LaRay, Robert Wagner, Verne Winchell, chairman of the section, Sidney Koppel, Gene Clarkson, Albert Clement, Langlois, Shirley White, Kip Neiderhaus, Earl Towsley, Ernest Hutchins and Robert Titgemeyer.

Style Show To Feature Woman's Club Program

Wednesday is "Peach Blossom Day" at the Woman's club of Arcadia, and an outstanding program has been planned for members and their guests. During the luncheon period a fashion show will be presented by the garden department of the club, and on the afternoon program, Mrs. Barbara Stickney Smith will talk on "Cups and Crowns." Mrs. John T. Simpson will preside.

The theme of the fashion show is dedicated to paying tribute to the 50th birthday of Arcadia and to the peach blossom day which was originated by Mrs. Nellie White, a former president, during her term of office. Mrs. Pauline Flesher of Town and Country clothes will show spring and summer fashions. Mrs. Ivan Timmons, will be narrator, and the following club members will model the fashions; Mrs. John B. Scull, Mrs. Richard C. Stewart, Mrs. Ray A. Young, Mrs. Edward Kaurin, Mrs. Ralph George, Mrs. Verne Woodruff, Mrs. Thomas B. Kemp and Mrs. Ward L. Gable.

BARBARA STICKNEY SMITH
. . . interesting

Mrs. G. G. Meade, the first president to take office in the present clubhouse, and Mrs. A. L. Parker, the first charter member, will head the fashion parade in the costumes of that day. Mrs. Elmer Godfrey is garden department chairman and in charge of the luncheon program.

Mrs. W. C. Winchester, program chairman, will introduce the afternoon program. Mrs. Stickney is a second generation native daughter, her grandparents on both sides coming from Maine to California to engage in the earliest lumber and shipping business in the northern part of the state. She is California educated, has traveled widely, but her home and interests are always here. She has been a club woman since she was old enough to listen to lectures, let alone give them, and home club, Ebell of Los Angeles, has made her work her passage as curator of various departments. She has been active in civic affairs and was instrumental in establishing the Toy Loan libraries for underprivileged children, an idea which spread over the entire United States. She is now having fun with old, old cups and saucers.

Porcelain is a courtly amusement and she will give the intriguing history of porcelain's discovery at Dresden, its fascination for all the crowned head of 18th century Europe, and the romantic history and display of 20 or more of the rarest and most beautiful cups and saucers once owned by royal families.

Luncheon will be served as usual at 11:30 a. m., under the chairmanship of Mrs. Albert Clements. Reservations are asked to be in by tonight. Call Mrs. Herman Kambietz, DOuglas 7-3672; Mrs. Forest Allen, DOuglas 7-5360, or Mrs. Elizabeth M. Winans, DOuglas 7-4584.

Juniors Plan To Attend District Meet

Active this year in attending the CFWC Junior department district meetings and round table dinners, the Arcadia Junior Woman's club members are making plans to attend a district conference to be held on March 23 in El Segundo High school auditorium. Members are striving for full attendance at the meeting, where attendance pins will be presented.

The last president's round table of the year was held last Monday in Sherman Oaks. Earlier, Mrs. Gerald Conner, club president, and the federation secretary attended a round table discussion held in South Gate.

At the February district conference, held in South Gate, Mrs. Conner was endorsed for the office of district recording secretary. [illegible] tending the conference were Mmes. Richard Hachten, Edward Schaar, Lawrence Kelley, Peter Dragus, Dean Wilson, John Baithes and Richard Jones.

Members also attended conferences held in the San Gabriel auditorium, the Tuesday Afternoon club in Glendale, the Torrance Civic club, Canoga Park, Wilmar, and the Arcadia club was hostess for for the presidents' round table.

HUSBANDS FETED

Members of the Junior Woman's club of Arcadia and their husbands enjoyed a spaghetti dinner at the clubhouse last Saturday night. Each year in February, the juniors ask their husbands to dinner and the husbands are enthusiastic in their reception of the idea. Joseph Henry of Arcadia, member of the Institute of Family Relations, was guest speaker.

Woman's Club Department Enjoys Annual 'Members Program' Event

Mmes. John P. Ross, John E. Vanderbur and Charles V. Crellin teamed to present a program of unusual merit to the members of the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia on Wednesday, Feb. 25, at the clubhouse. The meeting was the "members' program," an annual feature of the department.

"Windows in an Old Adobe," authored by Bess Adams Garner, was ably reviewed by Mrs. Vanderbur, and her description of early California days was of special interest to the group because they had visited the Palomares adobe, the subject of the volume, during the 1951-52 department season.

"Bells," covering broadly the place of bells in the history and various cultures of man, with special emphasis on the Camino Real bells of California, was given by Mrs. Ross. The El Camino Real bells were placed, commencing in 1906, along the one-time route of the padres between the missions, extending from San Diego to Sonoma.

Mrs. Crellin brought a bouquet of desert sand verbena from her desert home and read a whimsical bit concerning this colorful plant and its habits from "Calico Print," a magazine devoted to California desert lore and history.

The Pio Pico adobe, home of the last governor of California under the Mexican regime, will be visited by the department on Wednesday, March 25, as a field trip. Members and guests will assemble at the clubhouse at 10:45 and take a picnic lunch to Penn Park in Whittier. At 1 o'clock they will be met at the adobe by Martin Cole, curator. He will conduct the group through the adobe, once a 33-room mansion, which is now a state museum. All department members, club members and guests are welcome to avail themselves of this unusual opportunity to be guided through the museum. It is furnished, and contains an extensive historical collection.

Mrs. J. E. Hutton presided at the meeting, assisted by Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, secretary, and Mrs. Bruce Williams and Mrs. Lucy Wyss, hostesses. Those present included Mmes.

Style Show Features Peach Blossom Day Of Woman's Club

Fashions of yesteryear view with styles of today in a parade of fashions Wednesday in a setting which was literally a bower of peach blossoms. The occasion was the annual "peach blossom day" celebration of the Woman's club of Arcadia which also marked this year, the 50th birthday of Arcadia. Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, extended a welcome to the 200 members and guests who were present in the beautiful clubhouse.

The luncheon program was in charge of the garden department of the club which presented Mrs. Flesher of the Town and Country shop of West Arcadia who staged the fashion show. Mrs. Ivan Timmons acted as narrator and described the lovely garments as they were modeled by club members. Hats were shown by Minnie Moss Clark.

Appearing first on the stage and walking through an arch covered with peach blossoms, were Mrs. Ida Parker, first charter member of the club, who was gowned in a fashionable ensemble of yesterday which included antique jewelry. Next to appear was Mrs. Emma Mead, a long-time member of the club and a past president, who was wearing the dress and jacket and fur that she had worn when she was club president. Other models were Mmes. R. A. Young, Verne Woodruff, Ralph George, John Scull, Edward Kaurin, Mary Kemp, Ward Gable, Richard Stewart. Mrs. Wilma Molsberry played background music on her accordion throughout the show.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Simpson announced that the club had entered the CWFC membership contest and had won fifth place and honorable mention with a total of 95 new members for the year. She complimented the membership chairmen: Mrs. A. C. Heilman, chairman; Mrs. H. J. Bait, vice-chairman; and Mrs. George Clinger, co-chairman, for their fine work.

The following delegates were elected to attend the district convention to be held March 11 and 12 at the Statler hotel; Mmes. A. C. Heilman, William Weaver, Raymond Kennett, Gregory Chase and William Adams. Alternates elected were: Mmes. John Renshaw, Robert Lane, William MacArthur, H. J. Bair and Archie Wilson.

Club Group To Sponsor Art Display

Artists of Arcadia are invited to exhibit their works of art or crafts at a community art show at the Woman's club of Arcadia, 324 South First avenue, on Wednesday, April 15. The show is being sponsored by the art department as one of the highlights of an active art year, and will constitute the second annual show. Advance response by prospective exhibitors indicates numerous and varied entries, according to Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, department chairman.

Entries may include oils, watercolors, ceramics, copperwork, woodcarving and rugs. Club members are permitted three entries, non-members two works. Pictures must be framed and wired, or matted.

The exhibit will be open to club members from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., the usual club luncheon and program period, and to non-members from 3 to 6. The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend the showing to acquaint themselves with the caliber of art work being done locally.

Entries will be received at the clubhouse on Tuesday morning, April 14, from 9 to 12, and all works must be picked up by 6:30 on April 15. For additional information, prospective entrants may call CUster 5-2892.

The show plans are under the direction of Mrs. Hacquebord, with Mrs. William MacArthur in charge of arranging entries. An assisting committee includes Mmes. Albert H. Green, Philip Weary, E. V. de Gero, George W. Castle and J. E. Hutton.

Junior Symphony Support Sought as Organization Steps Completed for Patrons' Association for Orchestra

Permanent organization of the new San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony Orchestra Patrons association received fresh impetus with the election of the group's first set of permanent officers by the organization committee at a recent meeting at the clubhouse of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, it was announced this week.

Mrs. John P. Ross, temporary chairman, was named president, with Mrs. Bruce McAbery, first vice-president and hospitality chairman; Mrs. Roy V. Johnson of San Marino, second vice-president, in charge of the membership campaign; Mrs. J. E. Hutton, third vice-president, handling orchestra promotion and publicity; Mrs. Edward A. Sanderson of San Gabriel, secretary, and Mrs. E. T. Haddock, treasurer. Directors-at-large are Mmes. John T. Simpson, Clinton W. Hetrick, L. H. Hendrixson, Ruth Hampton and Louis H. Lowe and W. Pringle Robinson of Eagle Rock. These officers and directors, together with Harold H. Scott, orchestra director, will comprise the board of directors.

Immediate objective of the association will be to place the junior orchestra on a permanent and independent basis in order to assure its continuance. The orchestra was started by the Woman's club of Arcadia as a youth project during the 1951-52 season. Interest in the project is now Valleywide, since the communities of Monrovia, Duarte, San Marino, San Gabriel, Temple City, Alhambra, El Monte, Baldwin Park, Azusa, Pasadena, Los Angeles, Altadena, Rosemead, Eagle Rock and Sierra Madre, as well as Arcadia, are represented among the young musicians. Arcadia boys and girls make up the largest community group, so generous local support of the current drive for funds is anticipated. Mrs. Roy V. Johnson heads the campaign, with all of the board of directors serving on her committee.

First to respond to the appeal for funds were the art, music and drama departments of the Woman's club of Temple City, with a contribution of $25. Other organizations contributing are Sigma Alpha Iota, Pasadena Alumnae chapter, the Arcadia Opti-Mrs. and the music department of the Woman's club of Arcadia. Parents of the children in the orchestra, as well as music-minded individuals, are coming forward with their share of contributions, according to Mrs. Johnson. Checks, made payable to the San Gabriel Valley Junior Symphony Orchestra Patrons association, may be mailed to the secretary, Mrs. Sanderson, at 213 North Rosemont, San Gabriel, or to the treasurer, Mrs. Haddock, at 365 West Las Tunas drive, Arcadia.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO INAUGURATE FIRST 'RECOGNITION' DAY

The Woman's club of Arcadia will inaugurate the first annual "recognition day" Wednesday at its regular luncheon meeting at 11:30 a. m. At this time all members who have attained 20 or more years of membership in the club will be honored as a tribute to their contribution to the club and the community.

Mrs. John T. Simpson will welcome members, guests and the special guests of the day. Silver membership cards will be presented to those who have been members for 25 years. The honor guests will be seated at a special table which will be appropriately decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Charles Billings, the first president of the club, will be especially honored as will the three charter members of the club, Mrs. A. L. Parker, Mrs. James A. Stoker and Mrs. C. B. Sumwalt.

One of the highlights of the unique day will be the dedication of the memorial niche in the main auditorium by Mrs. Emma Meade, who was president at the time the clubhouse was built. The design of the niche has been under the direction of Mrs. S. J. Nock.

Mrs. Charles Ganther, a past president, is in charge of the recognition ceremony and will introduce the honored guests. Between 30 and 40 long-time members are expected to be present.

Following the luncheon intermission, Margaret Mendenhall, popular book reviewer, will present another of her delightful programs.

Reservations must be made by tonight. Call Mrs. Herman Kambeitz, DOuglas 7-3672; Mrs. Forest Allen, DOuglas 7-4332, or Mrs. Elizabeth M. Winans, DOuglas 7-4584.

Gala Dinner Planned by Night Group

Evening department of the Arcadia Woman's club made plans for a Mexican fiesta dinner at the regular business meeting held last Monday night at the home of Mrs. Ernest Hutchins, 75 Magna Vista. Mrs. Verne Winchell presided.

The gala dinner will be held in the Woman's clubhouse for members and their husbands. Mrs. Albert Clement, chairman, will be assisted by Mmes. Robert Titgemeyer, Gerald Mills, John Barry, William Dillon, Richard Barry, Carl Hoglund, Thomas Kemp, Gene Clarkson, Kip Niederhaus and Mrs. Verne Winchell. The department also planned to hold another Hawaiian luau during the summer months. A committee was appointed to revise the by-laws consisting of Mmes. Anthony Anger, Ernest Hutchins, Verne Winchell and Robert Titgemeyer, chairman.

In response to a recent appeal for a bicycle to give to a half-orphan girl, the club group received nine bicycles. They gave one to the little girl suffering from muscular disease, and the other eight will be given out to half-orphans as the need arises.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sidney Koppel, 1010 Oakwood drive, when a representative from Aileene's Fibre and Floral shop will give a demonstration.

Others enjoying the meeting were Mmes. Jack Wagner, S. White A. T. Stuhrman, Allen Langlois, William Bradner, Verne Woodruff, Richard Marsh, W. D. Gibbs and Lester Lee. Two guests were welcomed, Mrs. F. Turner and Mrs. Lee Messick.

Early Members Of Club Honored

The hands of time turned back several decades yesterday for Arcadia Woman's Club with the observance of the first annual "Recognition Day."

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, presided during the luncheon hour and seated at her right was the first president, Mrs. Alice Billings, who in 1914 organized the club with a handful of civic-minded women. Also seated at the head table were three charter members: Mmes. Ida Parker, C. B. Sumwalt and James Stoker.

Mrs. Simpson also paid tribute to other early members for their foresight and leadership and those acknowledging 20 or more years of association with the club were: Mmes. John Renshaw, Hugh Sanborn, Ella Byrne, G. G. Meade, Wood Glover, Isabel Evans, Florence Duffy, R. Schwarzkopf, S. B. Schermerhorn, Maurice Trew, Alice Cline, Robert Ferrante, C. J. Noack, C. F. Schermerhorn and Clara Smith. Mrs. Charles F. Ganther, past president, conducted the recognition ceremony.

The day also marked dedication of the memorial niche by Mrs. Meade.

With the growth of the club, an expansion program has been considered, and as more than $1000 is now in the treasury, raised this year through various projects, members voted to put $500 into a building fund. This was increased $100 by a contribution of the evening department. Various ideas and opinions were expressed from the floor, regarding the enlargement project to be studied by an investigating committee composed of: Mmes. Meade, Parker, B. E. Turner, John Balthes, John P. Ross, Albert L. Weickert, L. R. Short, R. W. Straub, Raymond M. Kennett, Verne Winchell, LeRoy Anderson and the president.

Mrs. Ivan Timmons and her committee served luncheon to more than 125 members and guests.

Building Fund for Arcadia Woman's Club Established by Board

It was a dramatic moment at the March 18 meeting of the Woman's club of Arcadia, when the president, Mrs. John T. Simpson, announced that the board had raised $1000 more than its budget during the year and that it would dedicate the $1000 to a building fund for the club. She stated that $500 was being transferred now and the remaining $500 would be at the conclusion of the current club year on May 31. Adding to the drama was the announcement by Mrs. Verne Winchell, evening department chairman, that her department would contribute $100 toward the fund, being the first club department to do so.

A committee was appointed to investigate property and building costs and site and parking availability, and to present all the facts to the membership by June 1 for consideration during the summer, so that in the fall the membership can decide what is the best plan of action. The committee consists of Mrs. G. G. Meade, Mrs. Ida Parker, Mrs. B. E. Turner, Mrs. John Balthes, Mrs. John Ross, Mrs. Albert Weickert, Mrs. L. R. Short, Mrs. Richard Straub, Mrs. Raymond Kennett, Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, Mrs. Verne Winchell and Mrs. Simpson.

Mrs. Simpson stated that the board recognized the need of a building fund, went into high gear and practiced every economy to achieve this end. At the opening of her year, Mrs. Simpson called a meeting of the board, department chairmen and committee chairmen and goals were set for the year. These, stated the president, have all been accomplished, thanks to teamwork.

The president stated that the extra money was derived from the rentals of an unusually successful rental year, under the chairmanship of Mrs. L. R. Short; the membership has set an all-time high with a total of 80 new members. Mrs. A. C. Heilman is membership chairman, Mrs. H. J. Bair vice-chairman, and Mrs. George Clinger, co-chairman of this committee.

The attendance has been phenomenally high with never less than 150 at a luncheon meeting and with the attendance usually between 185 and 200. An important innovation was the orientation of new members through a special hospitality plan to make them feel at home and active, this is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Archie Wilson. Ways and means have been very successful under the direction of Mrs. Albert Weickert.

Another goal to emphasize the traditions of the club is being accomplished in the history of the club which is now being compiled for publication by a committee headed by Mrs. G. G. Meade. Another highlight was the encouragement of youth in establishing for the first time a junior club day to be observed by the seniors annually, with a written policy on senior and junior relationships.

The club sponsors 150 Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls and this year it has invited the girls to decorate the luncheon tables once a month for meetings, provided an American essay contest, and Saturday afternoon in the clubhouse will give a gala party for all the girls.

Another goal to create a first in civic service was the organizing of the first Arcadia Historical society by the California history and landmarks section of the club under the direction of its chairman, Mrs. J. E. Hutton.

The clubhouse has been redecorated this year including new stage drapes to the amount of $1200, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Thurman Keim, senior trustee.

Another project this year is the American citizenship program with a 10-point program under the direction of Mrs. Earl Dettra. The club will also send a boy to Boys' State under this project. Attendance and reservations have been taken care of by Mrs. Herman Kambeitz and Mrs. Thomas Connor, and there has been increased philanthropy in all departments with Mrs. Winchell as philanthropy chairman.

All these goals Mrs. Simpson reiterated had been accomplished through the cooperation of the entire club.

Theme of the meeting was "Recognition Day" and long-time members of the club were honored. Mrs. Charles Ganther was chairman of this, assisted by Mmes. John Scull, Robert Lane, M. M. Trew and Michael Duffy. Mrs. Simpson introduced Mrs. Charles Billings, who recently celebrated her 90th birthday, who was first president of the Arcadia Woman's club. She also introduced the charter members, Mrs. A. L. Parker, Mrs. James A. Stoker and Mrs. C. B. Sumwalt. These ladies were all presented with carnation corsages made by Mrs. Lane.

Mrs. Simpson stated that Mrs. Billings has been followed by 25 presidents and the following were introduced by Mrs. Ganther: Mmes. Hugh Sanborn, Ella Byrne, Wood Glover, Michael Duffy, S. Schermerhorn, John Renshaw, R. Schwarzkopf, Jessie Stewart, Alice Cline, Robert Ferrante, C. F. Noack, C. F. Schermerhorn, Clare Smith, and Miss Isabelle Evans. All of the honored guests' places were marked with silver place cards.

Another highlight of the eventful day was the dedication of the memorial niche in the auditorium of the clubhouse. At the start of the current club year, Mrs. Simpson had asked that the niche be set aside as a memorial for departed members, and Mrs. S. J. Nock was named chairman for a committee to provide a memorial for the niche. Mrs. Mead read a dedication poem and Mrs. Simpson placed white baby iris around the base of the memorial. The ceremony closed with a prayer.

The memorial is a beautiful seven-branch candelabra on a Philippine mahogany pedestal bearing the lettering "In Memoriam." Placed in the dark green niche, which was painted by Mrs. Keim, the memorial has beauty and dignity. Curtis O. Brooks of the Automotive service at 66 East Foothill, drilled the four precision holes in the base of the candelabra and the memorial itself was made by the Howard Atwood plant in Pasadena, manufacturers of church furniture. Serving with Mrs. Nock were Mmes. Byrnes, Parker and Wilson.

Luncheon was served by Mrs. Ivan Timmons and the following committee: Mmes. Augspurger, Bair, Neuviller, Clinger, Fuerst, Willard, Meyer, McDawl, Hitt, Cocke, Webster and Verna Mae Turner.

Camellias, provided by Mrs. Stoker, were presented to each member. Table decorations of Easter baskets and vari-colored eggs were done by Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. C. Hetrick and Mrs. J. Hendricks, leaders, were present.

A new song was named as the club song, "This Is My Country," and was sung by the membership under the direction of Mrs. Roy Regnier.

Following the luncheon intermission, Mrs. Margaret Mendenhall, who was a guest for luncheon, gave one of her fine book reviews.

Juniors Take Part in Work Of GFWC Guild

One of the most important philanthropic projects of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club is the Needlework guild, and under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard Hachten of 107 Pamela road, the juniors have personally made or bought more than 150 new garments since last October. These are being sent to the Los Angeles County Guild chapter. Many hours have been spent by the Arcadia Juniors in preparing the much needed articles which consisted of baby and children's clothing, hospital jackets and household linens.

The Needlework guild is a nonsectarian, non-profit, charitable organization operating chiefly through the General Federation of Woman's clubs throughout the United States. The primary function of the guild is to collect new garments and distribute them to hospitals, homes and other institutions where needed. There are 550 branches of the guild in this country comprising nearly a million members who make, collect and distribute approximately two million garments a year.

Old Landmark Visited by History Group

The fabulous 33-room adobe home of Governor Lio Lico, the last Mexican governor of California, was visited by members of the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia on March 25. Ten rooms of the original home have been restored, and members wandered through the rooms, patios and grounds that were once one of the centers of social and political life in the Southland. The adobe is located near the bank of the San Gabriel river in what is now the town of Pico. The rooms are furnished appropriately to the 1830s and '40s, and many historical mementos have been given to the state since it became a state historical museum. The curator of the museum received the Arcadia ladies and their guests and guided them through the premises.

Members and guests gathered at the clubhouse in Arcadia at 10 taking their picnic lunches to a park in Whittier, which is near Pico adobe.

Arcadia Woman's Club Sponsors Second Annual Art Show in Club

Second annual art show, sponsored by the art department of the Woman's club of Arcadia, to be held Wednesday, April 15, at the clubhouse, 324 South First avenue, is being received with enthusiasm and many prominent artists of Arcadia are planning to exhibit their work, states Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, chairman.

The exhibit will be open to club members from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., the usual club luncheon and program period, and to non-members from 3 to 6 p. m. The public has been cordially invited to attend this exhibit and to acquaint themselves with the fine art work being done locally.

Entries will be received at the clubhouse on Tuesday, April 14, from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and must be picked up again by 6:30 p. m. on Wednesday, April 15. Pictures are to be framed and wired, or matted. Club members are permitted three entries and non-members two entries. The club is giving the exhibitors the privilege of selling their work. Prices may be fixed at the exhibitor's discretion. A small commission goes to the art department's ways and means fund.

The show is open to all artists of Arcadia. The committee asks the following questions: "Do you paint in oils or water colors? Or do you find interest in some other field of art such as ceramics, rug weaving, wood carving, copper, leather work or lamp shade making? You are invited to show your skill at this community art show."

The show plans are under the direction of Mrs. Hacquebord, CUster 5-2892, with Mrs. William MacArthur in charge of arranging entries. Assisting committee includes Mmes. E. V. de Gero, Albert H. Green, J. E. Hutton, George W. Castle, Phillip Weary and Albert L. Weickert.

Junior Club Elects for Coming Year

An election of officers for the year 1953-54 and an unusual program presented by the outgoing officers highlighted the March 27 meeting of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club.

Mrs. Richard Hachten was unanimously elected president for the coming year. Mrs. Hachten, who lives with her husband, and two children, Diane and Richy at 107 Pamela road, is a member of the board of the Santa Anita school, a Girl Scout leader, and has been captain of Red Cross and Community Chest drives in her area.

Those elected to serve with her are Mrs. L. J. McCourt, first vice-president; Mrs. Dean Wilson, second vice-president; Mrs. Bert Schaar, third vice-president; Mrs. Dale Plehn, secretary; Mrs. Peter Dragus, treasurer; Mrs. Gerard Connor, federation secretary; Mrs. Edward Schaar, parliamentarian.

The outgoing board members headed by Mrs. Gerard Connor, president, gave a Hawaiian program complete with hula dances and native songs. The membership committee, Mrs. William Zima, chairman, proved to be accomplished barbershop singers. And the ways and means committee, Mrs. Richard Swanson, chairman, presented a comical take-off on Ralph Edwards' television show, "This Is Your Life."

Twenty junior members honored at the "Junior Day" luncheon yesterday at the Woman's clubhouse included Mmes. Gerard Connor, Frank Shepherd, Richard Swanson, Edward Schaar, Robert Kidd, William Zima, E. Gibney, Richard Hachten, Charles Wallace, Dean Wilson, Gene Spranger, L. McCourt, J. Breakfast Served by Club Group

International relations department of the Arcadia Woman's club served a delicious breakfast to 90 last Thursday in the clubhouse. In keeping with the international theme, Mrs. Margaret Vochelli of South Africa, gave an interesting and educational talk on the political situation and all its implications in South Africa. This was followed by beautiful colored slides of the country.

Mrs. Vochelli, although born in British Columbia, Canada, grew up in South Africa, where her father had gone as an officer in the Canadian Volunteers during the Boer war. Living in Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, she took up journalism with the Friend Newspaper. She left South Africa on her marriage to an officer of the Italian Mercantile Marine. She and her husband and their son have been citizens of the United States for the past 15 years.

Mrs. Richard Hilf is chairman of the department. Her officers include Mrs. R. E. Stadig, vice-chairman; Mrs. Lucy Wyss, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Robert Lane, publicity, and Mrs. John P. Ross, hospitality. Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the club, and its first vice-president, Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, were guests of the day.

Committee assisting Mrs. Hilf included Mrs. Clara Morris in charge of the breakfast; Mrs. J. K. Weems, tickets; Mrs. Stadig, Mrs. E. J. Frentress, Mrs. Leslie Shotler, Mrs. Stephen Page, Mrs. Albert Green and Mrs. Stadig.

Mrs. Wood Glover, who introduced the guest speaker, is founder of the department.

Arcadia Woman's Club Pays Tribute To Juniors

Arcadia Tribune & News
Thursday, April 9, 1953

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the Arcadia Woman's club, paid tribute to youth at last week's luncheon meeting which was dedicated to the Arcadia Junior Woman's club.

The president said, "During the month we have paid tribute to yesterday—those who pioneered our club, today we pay tribute to tomorrow, to you who will make the future of our club, and we feel safe in leaving the future in your hands."

Mrs. J. K. Weems, chairman of the nominating committee, presented an uncontested slate of officers to be voted on at the April 15 meeting. Those named were: President, Mrs. Bruce McAbery, who served in that capacity in the year 1951-52; her first vice-president, Mrs. Roy Regnier; second vice-president, Mrs. A. C. Heilman; recording secretary, Mrs. Ivan Timmons; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Merrill; federation secretary, Mrs. L. R. Short; treasurer, Mrs. John Scull; parliamentarian, Mrs. Edward Heiss; junior trustee, Mrs. William Adams, and ways and means, Mrs. David Shrader.

The following delegates and alternates were elected to attend the state convention to be held April 21-24 at the Biltmore hotel: Mmes. Simpson, Heiss, McAbery, Regnier, F. E. Gates and E. J. Fuerst. Alternates: Mmes. William Adams, A. F. Hacquebord, Timmons, Archie Wilson and J. V. Covell.

Mrs. Gerard Connor, Junior Woman's club president, was introduced by Mrs. Simpson, and before Mrs. Connor introduced the juniors present, she made the announcement that the Junior Woman's club was contributing $100 to the building fund of the club. Mrs. Mabel Dressler, a former president, and sponsor of the juniors, was a welcome guest, but Mrs. Phillip Libby, honorary sponsor, was unable to be present.

Mrs. Connor introduced Mrs. Eugene Knott of Arcadia, district president of CFWC Juniors, who gave an interesting talk on what the juniors are accomplishing.

The luncheon tables were beautifully decorated with lilies and other spring flowers by Mrs. Leslie Campbell, Mrs. Lewis Ashby, Mrs. Russell Augspurger and Mrs. Donald Dinsmoor.

Mrs. Daniel Slattery, luncheon chairman, was assisted by Mmes. Bader, Rouch, Albert Ewe, Sorenson, Snell, LaRue, Lindell, Orr and Dettra. Luncheon was served to 166 guests and members.

The luncheon period of the meeting closed with the juniors reciting the Junior pledge. Juniors present included Mmes. Frank Shepher, Richard Swanson, Edward Schaar, Robert Kidd, William Zima, John L. King, Eugene Nott, E. Gibney, Richard Hachten, Charles Wallace, Dean Wilson, Gene Spranger, L. McCourt, J. Fulgham, Howard Walker, LaVerne Hubbard, William Pennington, Dale Plehn, Donald Hage, Galen Sheetz, Bert Schaar, F. Davis, B. L. Keyser, Robert Picking, Eugene Hron, Lawrence Kelley, Gene Epitallier, Norman Stanger, H. Bremer and Wallace Knutsen.

The afternoon program was presented by Bob Swanson who entertained with magic tricks as he gave the background of the mysterious acts and the development of magic throughout the centuries. The production, "Fantasy of Magic," was synchronized with a musical score and augmented by special lighting and sound effects. Mrs. W. C. Winchester, program chairman, introduced Swanson.

BIG MOMENT—Mrs. Gerard Connor, Junior Woman's club president, is holding one of the awards to be presented to a winner in the Arcadia Woman's club essay contest. Girls writing the winning essays were, left to right, Anne Winchester, Julie Ann Bailey, Carole O'Neill and Suzanne Bonnet. In the back row are Mrs. John L. Nourse, left, Mrs. William Myers and Mrs. Ardene Boller. —Tribune photo.

Arcadia Woman's Club Gives Party for Sponsored Youth Groups

The Woman's Club of Arcadia staged a large party Saturday afternoon, March 28, in the clubhouse to honor its sponsored youth groups in Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts. The sponsored groups are 10 and include 150 girls . . . and 148 of them were at the party.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, club president, presided. The program was in charge of Mrs. W. Myers, Mrs. John L. Nourse, assisted by Mrs. J. O. Arozena of the Girl Scouts and Mrs. J. L. Thompson of Camp Fire Girls. Films were shown through the courtesy of Nancy Theaker of the Don Stroud Camera shop; the Odakota Camp Fire Girls handled registrations and refreshments were served by Mrs. E. J. Fuerst, Mrs. Homer Brown and Mrs. Verne Winchell.

Leaders assisting were: Girl Scouts—Mrs. Russell Farnum and Mrs. Hal Howard, Troop 8; Mrs. W. A. Goldenberg and Mrs. B. Baxter, Troop 18; Mrs. John N. ART EXHIBIT, ELECTION; TALK BY ED AINSWORTH TO FEATURE WOMAN'S CLUB DAY

"Duels, Horsewhips and Typewriters—the History of California Journalism" will be the topic of Ed Ainsworth, widely-read columnist and sought-after raconteur Wednesday, when the annual California History and Landmarks department day is observed at the Woman's club of Arcadia luncheon, according to Mrs. J. E. Hutton, department chairman. Officers will be elected for the new club year and the president has urged all members to vote, even though it is an uncontested slate, to show their support of the candidates.

Another highlight of the day will be an art exhibit, which is open to club members between the hours of 11 a. m. and 3 p. m., and to the public from 3 to 6 p. m. Mrs. Hacquebord is chairman of the art show.

Three Arcadians who have been instrumental in focusing attention on historical aspects of Arcadia will be specially recognized and seated, along with officers of the department, at the head table with Mrs. John T. Simpson, club president. They are Gordon Eberly, author of the recently published "Arcadia," a history of the city in honor of its current 50th anniversary year; Dewey Nelson, chairman of the historical restoration work on the historical Queen Ann Cottage and the Hugo Reid Adobe on the Rancho Santa Anita, and S. H. Gill, manager of the Lyon Pony Express museum.

Mrs. Hutton's fellow department officers are Mrs. William MacArthur, vice-chairman; Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. John Renshaw, special events chairman. The local California history and landmarks department will be honored by the presence of Mrs. George Combs, district chairman.

Ainsworth's appearance is anticipated as one of the highlights of the year's luncheon programs in view of his reputation for humor and wit. The Ainsworths are Arcadia residents, and Mrs. Ainsworth is a new and active member of the club.

California history and landmark members will, in keeping with their tradition, wear Spanish mantillas, shawls, sunbonnets, calico dresses and such as reminders of California of years gone by. They will be seated at special tables reserved for them.

Following the intermission, Margaret Mendenhall, popular book reviewer, will give another of her interesting programs.

Luncheon reservations are required to be in by tonight. Call Mrs. Forest Allen, DOuglas 7-5360, or Mrs. Elizabeth Winans, DOuglas 7-4584.

Entries for the art show will be received at the clubhouse from 9 a. m. until 12 noon tomorrow. Club members have been reminded that they are permitted three displays of their works of art of crafts.

Flower Show of Arcadia Woman's Club To Feature Golden Jubilee Theme

An enthusiastic committee is busy making final plans to make the annual flower show of the Woman's Club of Arcadia an outstanding event for the entire community.

Sponsored by the garden department of the club, the show will be given April 29 from 2 to 9 p. m. in the clubhouse, 324 South First avenue. The Golden Jubilee theme of Arcadia's 50th anniversary has been chosen as the theme for the flower show.

Mrs. Nels Erick Stadig, chairman, has stated that many unusual and lovely innovations are being planned for the show, and that members of the committee will wear early western attire.

Refreshments will be served throughout the show and the Golden Jubilee motif will be used as decor at the tea table where Mrs. Edward Kaurin and her committee will preside.

Assisting Mrs. Stadig are Mmes. Karl Stephens, co-chairman, A. C. Heilman, George Clinger, Leonard Short, John Merrill, Florence Clark, Archie Wilson, Florence Adams, Lucy Wyss, Leslie Campbell, Ralph George, Rose Lane, Katherine Brown, Phillip Sherk, William Weaver, E. J. Verhoef, Ward Gable, David Shrader, Forest Allen, Russell Augspurger, H. J. Bair, Carl Turner, Richard Hilf, Charles Ganther, Herman Kambeitz, Edwin Gonter and James Cook and Mrs. Elmer Godfrey, chairman of the department.

Entries are free and open to the public and admission to the show is free. Professionals may exhibit but are to be judged separately. All exhibits must be in place by Wednesday, April 29, at 10:45 a. m. All exhibitors must furnish their own containers for flower arrangements and be responsible for them.

Specimen blooms must be displayed in the club's containers and all arrangements must be completed before being brought into the building. The clubhouse will be opened Tuesday evening only, 4:30 to 7:30 p. m. to receive entries. All potted plants will be received Tuesday evening only, 4:30 to 7:30 p. m.

JUNIORS HEAR UN TALK

Dr. william Lawler was guest speaker at the April 10 meeting of the Arcadia Junior Woman's club. Dr. Lawler has long been interested in the United Nations, and is a very strong supporter of the Bricker amendment. The Juniors are planning to write individually to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles in support of this amendment.

An honored guest of the evening was Mrs. J. B. Garkie, who is an Arcadia representative of the John Tracy Clinic. Mrs. Garkie announced this year's plans for the Tracy Clinic fair to be held in May. The Juniors annually support the clinic with a booth at the fair and this year the girls will make and sell aprons, under the direction of Philanthropic Chairman Mrs. Wallace Knutsen and her committee, Mrs. J. H. Fulgham and Mrs. Glenn Smith.

Mrs. Richard Swanson, ways and means chairman, gave a report of the plans for the annual spring formal ball to be held at the Santa Anita Turf club, May 16.

Juniors exhibiting at the art exhibit of the Arcadia Woman's club on Wednesday were Mmes. Robert Brown, Richard Hachten, William Zima, Norman Stanger, Paul Beach, Robert Knerl and John King.

Arcadia Woman's Club Elects New Officers

Mrs. Bruce McAbery, who served as president of the Woman's club of Arcadia in 1951-52, was again elected president of the club at Wednesday's luncheon meeting, which was sponsored by the California history and landmarks department.

Others taking office with Mrs. McAbery are Mmes. Roy Regnier, first vice-president; A. C. Heilman, second vice-president; Ivan Timmons, recording secretary; John Merrill, corresponding secretary; Leonard R. Officers will be installed at the June 3 meeting, the last one of the year.

MRS. BRUCE McABERY
. . . to serve again

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, welcomed the 160 guests and members and introduced Mrs. John Hutton, department chairman, who stated that Arcadia's 50th anniversary was the theme of the day and paid special recognition to three Arcadians for their contribution to the preservation of the history of Arcadia. They were Gordon S. Eberly, whose historical volume, "Arcadia, City of the Santa Anita," was published this year of the Golden Jubilee; Dewey Nelson, chairman of the historical work about completed on the Queen Anne Cottage and soon to be started on the Hugo Reid adobe of the Rancho Santa Anita, now a part of the Los Angeles State and County arboretum; and John Gill, manager of the Lyon Pony Express museum in Arcadia.

Mrs. Hutton introduced Ed Ainsworth, well-known author and columnist, whose subject was "Duels, Horsewhips and Typewriters, the Story of California Journalism," entertained his listeners with amusing anecdotes and colorful bits of history. He traced the history of journalism, stating that in the early days of California history, an editor not only risked his reputation but his life as well from the time he put his pen to paper. Every editor who dared to raise his voice had to be prepared to defend himself, first, with duelling, then with horse whips, and later with vitriolic expressions. Adding to the color of the day were the early California costumes worn by department officers and members. Tables were decorated appropriately with covered wagons by Girl Scout Troop 18, which is sponsored by the club. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Charles Ganther and her committee.

Mrs. Simpson announced that Mrs. Albert Weickert and her ways and means committee had made more than $300 on the rummage sale and during the year had made $1023, an outstanding achievement. Mrs. Simpson also complimented Mrs. Ray Kennett and her committee on the successful dance that was given by the social committee of the club.

An unusual feature of the day was the art exhibit and many beautiful paintings were hung on the walls.

Exhibitors included Mmes. Diana Hachten, Dorothy Vinyard, Gail MacArthur, Betty Spero, Marjorie Connor, Marjorie Brown, Virginia Pontius, E. deGero, Nita Beach, Weary, Castle, Green, Alberta Babcock, Anna Bailey, Mildred Petty, Betty Thompson, Justine Wishek, Edna Lenz, Frances McKinley, Wilma Dennis, Mildred Maltbie, Grace Puett, Dorothy Kushner, John L. Nelson, who is membership chairman, will outline his plans for the forthcoming membership drive. This campaign will be conducted on a community-wide basis, with membership set at a nominal $1 per year to appeal to all who would like to support the society's aims and participate in its activities. Long-time residents, as well as newcomers, have expressed interest in the organization, whose purposes are three-fold: 1) to provide a place for fellowship and reminiscing for pioneer families; 2) to have a functioning group active in the collection of historical data and relics and in the preservation of local historic sites and traditions, and 3) to participate in community observances of a civic and cultural nature, emphasizing historical aspects.

The charter membership rolls will remain open until the installation dinner on Saturday evening, June 6. This dinner and plans for the installation are in the hands of Mrs. Ross. It will be a pot-luck affair in the Woman's clubhouse.

Organization of the historical society was part of the California History and Landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia observance of the city's 50th anniversary year.

Woman's Club Evening Department Meets at Allan Langlois Home

The April 13 business meeting of the evening department of the Arcadia Woman's club was called to order by Mrs. Verne Winchell, chairman, at the home of Mrs. Allan Langlois, 2230 Sewanee Lane.

Mrs. Robert Titgemeyer, chairman of the revision committee, read the changes in the standing rules recommended by the committee to the group. Major changes were: adding two new elected officers, parlimentarian and ways and means chairman; a monthly board meeting, payment of dues, annual and semi-annual instead of monthly, adding a philanthropy chairman to standing chairman, with all chairmen a part of the board. These all passed unanimously with a few other minor changes.

Mrs. A. P. Stuhrman was elected chairman of the nominating committee. Others to serve are: Mmes. Anthony Anger and Gene Clarkson. Their report will be made at the May 11 meeting, at which time nominations may be made from the floor. The group voted $20 for envelopes and postage for letters to the State Capital in connection with the recent drive in Arcadia for stiffer narcotic laws. Members who wrote to 25 or more senators and assemblymen were Mmes. Gerald Mills, Ernest Hutchins, Albert Clement, Verne Winchell, William Gibbs and Earl Towsley. The group also voted to have an installation luncheon meeting instead of a dinner meeting the last week in May, Mrs. Richard Marsh in charge of arrangements.

Those attending the meeting were Mmes. Carl Hoglund, Lester Lee, Richard Barro, John Barry, Thomas Kemp, C. R. Neiderhaus, Jack Wagner, C. Schleeweis, James Skinner, S. White, Verne Woodruff, William Messick, William Dillon, A. M. LaRay, and Mmes. Stuhrman, Hutchins, Gibbs, Marsh, Anger, Titgemeyer, Clarkson, Clement, Towsley, Winchell and K. Turner. Mrs. LaRay was co-hostess with Mrs. Langlois.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Skinner, 600 Arbolada drive, Monday, April 27 at 8 p. m.

Arcadia Junior Woman's Club Wins Honors at District Conclave

Arcadia Junior Woman's club walked off with honors at the district convention held April 24 and 25 at the Ambassador hotel in Los Angeles, which included delegates from 63 junior clubs in Southern California.

Mrs. Gerard Connor, retiring president of Arcadia Juniors, won the office of district recording secretary and as Mrs. Eugene Knott of Arcadia, district president, announced the results at a formal banquet held at the Beverly Hills hotel, Mrs. Connor took her place at the speaker's table.

MRS. GERARD CONNOR
. . . district officer

Mrs. Robert Serr, state president, installed new officers at a luncheon Saturday held in the Embassy room of the Ambassador with Mrs. Knott assisting. At this time awards for district were announced and the Arcadia juniors were jubilant when their club was presented with a bronze cup, the first cup to be won by the Arcadia Junior club. It was won by Mrs. John L. King, international relations chairman, for the most outstanding chairmanship in international relations in the district. Some of the projects were supplying baby clothes to a foundling home in Athens, Greece, collecting old nylons to give work to Japanese war widows, establishing correspondence with people in foreign countries and "Meals for Millions," a United Nations program.

Plans are being made with Mrs. John T. Simpson, senior club president, to place the trophy permanently in the clubhouse.

Other members of the Junior Woman's club who have held district offices are its first president, Mrs. William Gibbs, who also served as district president in 1940; Virginia Hostetler, recording secretary in 1941, and Mrs. Margaret Bon Eske Olson, recording secretary in 1945.

Historical Society Schedules Charter Membership Fete

A decision to climax its charter membership drive with a potluck dinner and installation ceremony on the evening of Saturday, June 13, highlighted the first meeting of the board of directors of the new Arcadia Historical society, a meeting held Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd K. Kingsley, 126 La Porte.

At the meeting, which was conducted by President Mrs. J. E. Hutton, the board members laid plans for the membership campaign, voting to endorse a plan whereby three membership classifications will be available for participants in society activities: annual membership at $1 a year, permanent sustaining membership at $15 and life membership at $50.

The membership drive, which will open in the near future, will be climaxed on the evening of June 13, when officers will be installed at a charter membership potluck dinner which will be held at the Woman's clubhouse. The dinner will be under the direction of Mrs. John P. Ross, with the program to be arranged by Kingsley.

In an organizational move, directors of the new society drew lots to establish terms of office. Mrs. Hutton, Mrs. Ross and Bill Sunday, publicity chairman, will serve three-year terms; Kingsley, Mrs. Simon P. Walters and E. E. Westerhouse will serve two-year terms; Secretary Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, Treasurer Homer Wishek and Membership Chairman Dewey Nelson will serve one-year terms.

Arcadia Woman's Club Stages Successful Show

Widespread community participation greeted the annual spring flower show given by the Woman's Club of Arcadia last Wednesday in the clubhouse. The show was staged by the garden department under the chairmanship of Mrs. N. E. Stadig and Mrs. Karl Stephens. Mrs. Elmer Godfrey is chairman of the department.

There was a beautiful and lavish display of plants, flower arrangements and exotic blooms throughout the clubhouse, and adding effectively to the beauty of the scene was the stage which carried out the Golden Jubilee theme of Arcadia's 50th birthday. Decorated by members of the Women's division of the Chamber of Commerce, the stage portrayed an Early California setting with a Spanish patio and a beautiful hacienda.

Grand sweepstakes winner was Mrs. Al H. Schoof of 1218 South Second avenue, a member of the Temple City Woman's club. She was presented with the perpetual trophy by H. T. Michler, president of the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce. The club also presented Mrs. Schoof with a personal trophy, a planter engraved with "Sweepstake Winner."

There were 494 entries in the show with approximately 140 in the flower arrangements division; 86 roses, 85 iris, 90 perennials and 65 in the shade-loving plant classification. Numerous orchid and other corsages were entered and several in the non-competitive class were made by Mrs. Ellen Nelson, an Arcadian who grows exotic orchids and cymbidiums.

Winners of high points included the following: Mrs. Herman Kambietz, a member of the Arcadia Woman's club, 24 points; Mrs. Anna Meader of Huntington Park, a member of the Los Angeles Floral Art group, also won 24 points; Mrs. Russell Lucas, Arcadia club, 20; Sidney Smyth, Monrovia, 20; Mrs. R. H. Schrecengost, Temple City club, 19; Mrs. Stadig, show chairman, 19; Mrs. Florence Adams, 17; Mrs. R. H. Burns, Altadena Woman's club, 14; Mrs. Philip Libby, Arcadia club, 11; Mrs. R. L. Senacac, 13; Mrs. E. J. Verhoef, Arcadia club, 9; Mrs. D. Merriott, 12.

Judges were: Flower arrangements, Mildred Bryant Brooks, South Pasadena; Lama Berger, Los Angeles; Mrs. Martha Hammen, Monrovia. Specimens—Kenny Kay, Arcadia; Edna Betts Ketchum, Pasadena; David F. Gilfillian, Pasadena. Potted plants—C. M. Gayle, Pasadena; Mrs. Peggy Jewel, Pasadena; Mrs. Fred Distel, Pasadena.

Tea and coffee were served throughout the show under the direction of Mrs. Edward Kaurin. The attractively appointed table was highlighted by a beautiful floral arrangement, the courtesy of Hortense Seymour of Hortense, Flowers and Gifts. Hortense also entered an arrangement in the professional classification.

Mrs. Stadig expressed her thanks to the committee, and to all those who helped to make the show a success. She especially thanked the Arcadia Tribune for its publicity.

Woman's Club Endorses School Bonds, Reactivates Safety Council

The Woman's Club of Arcadia unanimously passed two important motions at the May 6 luncheon meeting. One was to endorse the school bonds in the coming election, and the other was the reactivating of the Arcadia Safety council. Mrs. E. J. Fuerst presented the motion for the school bond endorsement, and Mrs. Jesse Balser, safety chairman of the club, and vice-chairman for safety of First District CFWC, presented the motion for the reactivating of the safety council.

Mrs. Balser said "As your safety chairman I have been commissioned by City Manager William Richards, Chief of Police Neil Anderson and City Engineer Ray Rogers to reactivate the Arcadia Safety council. A close working relationship with public officials and the Chamber of Commerce has been established, and with emphasis on united strength is stronger, the active participation of all organized groups is being sought, especially the schools and Parent-Teacher associations, who already have a fine continuing safety program. The objectives of the council will be to promote traffic safety, safety in the schools, safety in the home and to promote industrial safety."

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president, stated that the Arcadia Woman's club, in accordance with its policy of always working for the youth of the community, would put its strength behind these measures.

Mrs. Simpson introduced Mrs. Gerard T. Connor, Arcadia Junior Woman's club president, stating that she had recently been elected a district officer and that the junior club had taken a trophy.

Mrs. Simpson also announced that Mrs. E. J. Verhoef had made corsages for the 81 new members taken in during the year and thanked Mrs. Archie Wilson as hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Richard Hilf, who writes the club calendars.

Luncheon was served by a committee headed by Mrs. Milton Uhl at tables decorated by the Odakota Camp Fire Girls. During luncheon, club members and their guests were taken on an enchanting trip to the beautiful Hawaiian islands via a color film through the courtesy of United Air Lines. Miss Frances Kelly acted as narrator of the film.

Following luncheon intermisison, Mrs. W. O. Winchester introduced Phil Kerr, pianist and composer, who presented a delightful program, "Hour of Cheer."

Student Play To Highlight Club's Final Meet of Year

Arcadia Woman's club will hold its final regular meeting of the year Wednesday, with a noon luncheon and a special treat presented by the Drama department.

A group of Pasadena City college students, members of the Delta Psi Omega National Dramatic fraternity, will present a one-act comedy, "Why I Am a Bachelor." Taking part will be Lois Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Johnson of Naomi street, Arcadia; Dan Calhoun and Starling Jordan. These students are chosen on their ability to work of quality and quantity.

Miss Johnson, who has been president of Delta Psi Omega for the past two semesters, has acted in the following plays: "Years Ago," "Outward Bound," "Far Off Hills," "See How They Run" and many one-act plays. She has also acted in and directed "Why I Am a Bachelor." She is a member of Spartan, Players' Guild and the AWS cabinet, and is a drama representative on the English council.

Dan Calhoun, pledging into Delta, has acted in "Great Big Doorstep," "Accidentally Yours," "See How They Run," "Why I Am a Bachelor" and has done some directing as well. He is interested in radio major and baseball.

Starling Jordan is active in Pasadena Playhouse and has appeared in the plays, "Far Off Hills," "Years Ago," "Little Women," "Dear Brutus" and several one-act plays. He is a member of Guild Art and a drama student.

These students present their plays in the Little Theater of Pasadena City college and the public is invited to attend performances. They have also entertained at various orphanages and use some of their earnings from the Little Theater for philanthropic work among the orphanages.

MRS. EARL TOWSLEY HOSTS WOMAN'S CLUB EVENING GROUP

May meeting of the evening department of Arcadia Woman's club was held Monday at the home of Mrs. Earl Towsley, 1329 San Carlos road, with Mrs. Robert Titgemeyer assisting. Mrs. Verne Winchell conducted the business meeting.

Newly elected president of California Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. George Cornelius, was speaker of the evening. She commended the group on its outstanding philanthropy propects and urged them to attend more meetings of the senior club as well as the monthly district meetings in Los Angeles, in order to exchange ideas with other evening departments. Mrs. Cornelius also gave the members a broader view of the federation and its workings throughout the nation.

Mrs. A. P. Stuhrman, chairman of the nominating committee, gave the committee's report and the following officers were unanimously elected: Mrs. Verne Winchell, chairman; Mrs. Titgemeyer, vice-chairman; Mrs. Carl Hoglund, secretary; Mrs. Allan Langlois, treasurer; Mrs. Towsley, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Ernest Hutchins, ways and means. Mrs. Gene Clarkson and Mrs. Anthony Anger also served on the nominating committee.

Honored guests were Mrs. John T. Simpson and Mrs. Bruce McAbery, outgoing and incoming presidents of the Arcadia Woman's club. Other guests were Mmes. J. A. Yeager, Galen Stouder and J. A. Bosworth.

Members present were Mmes. Gerald Mills, James Skinner, Sydney Koppel, W. S. Bradner, R. A. Marsh, Jack Wagner, K. Turner, William Messick, William Dillon, L. B. Lee, Thomas Kent, John Barry, Verne Woodruff, Clarkson, Stuhrman, Hutchins, Titgemeyer, Langlois, Hoglund, Anger and Winchell.

A salad dessert was served by the hostess. Next meeting will be an installation luncheon May 27 at Pierre's in San Marino, with Mrs. Simpson acting as installing officer.

Awards Made By Literature Department

Bringing to a close one of its biggest projects of the year, the Literature section of the Arcadia Woman's club presented awards for the best works appearing in the department's recently published "Book of Poems." Judging of the poetry was by members of the American Association of University women.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Frentress on West Camino Real last Tuesday morning, and hostesses were Mmes. John P. Ross, M. W. Cocke, Kenneth B. Leslie and Ralph I. George.

Guest speaker on the program was Mrs. W. Stockwell of Pacific Palisades, who reviewed the life of Dr. Albert Schweitzer, noted musician and doctor from South Africa. Mrs. Stockwell discussed many of Dr. Schweitzer's books, but dwelt mainly on the philosophical content of his "My Life and Thought."

In the poetry awards, first place went to Mrs. S. J. Knock; second to Mrs. John P. Simpson, club president, and third to Mrs. Edmund Maier. Honorable mention was given to Mrs. Albert H. Green and Mrs. John Welsh.

Other business of the meeting was the decision to buy a silver gift for the club. Social hour was the usual kaffee klatch.

History and Landmarks Department Of Woman's Club To Install Officers at Last Meeting of Year

Mrs. J. E. Hutton will be installed as chairman of the California History and Landmarks department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia for a second term when the department holds its closing meeting of the year on Wednesday. Taking office with Mrs. Hutton will be Mmes. Bruce Williams, first vice-chairman, William Adams, second vice-chairman, and Andrew F. Hacquebord, secretary-treasurer. Acting as installing officer will be Mrs. John P. Ross, a past president of the club, according to Mrs. John A. Renshaw, in charge of installation arrangements.

Setting of the meeting will be the charming Santa Anita Oaks home of Mrs. Richard H. Hilf at 245 W. Foothill Blvd., located on what was once part of the historic holdings of Lucky Baldwin's Rancho Santa Anita.

The installation will be preceded by an 11:30 potluck buffet luncheon and the afternoon's program will be given by Mrs. Frances Muir Pomeroy, chairman of the San Fernando Valley Historical society, who will tell of her efforts in securing the preservation of the Tujunga home of John Steven McGroarty, California's late poet-laureate and author of the famed Mission Play.

Specially invited guests include Mrs. John T. Simpson and Mrs. Bruce McAbery, outgoing and incoming presidents of the club, Mrs. J. L. Byrne, president of the club at the time of the founding of the California History and Landmarks department in 1935, and Catherine Mundy, women's editor of the Tribune.

The gala luncheon and meeting will bring to its conclusion a year of unusual interest evidenced by club members in the work of the California History and Landmarks department because of Arcadia's observance of its 50th municipal birthday in August. The department is cooperating with the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce for this celebration, and other projects of the current year include a membership contribution to the Historical committee of the Los Angeles County-State Arboretum for the restoration work on the Queen Anne cottage and the Hugo Reid adobe, and the sponsorship of newly-formed Arcadia Historical society.

All department members, as well as club members and their guests, with a special welcome to the many new members of the club this year, are invited. For assistance with transportation, call DOuglas 7-3060 or CUster 5-2892.

Philanthropy Report Given To Junior Club

Mrs. Wallace Knutsen, philanthropy chairman for the Arcadia Junior Woman's club, reported at the last meeting of the club on the many philanthropic projects that the Juniors have completed this year under her chairmanship, supported by ways and means chairman, Mrs. Richard Swanson and her committee.

Last Saturday, Mrs. Knutsen, assisted by Mrs. Curtis Bluemke and Mrs. Glenn Smith conducted an apron booth for the Arcadia Juniors at the John Tracy clinic's annual bazaar in Los Angeles. All proceeds went to the clinic which is a training school for deaf children.

Other philanthropies of the past year included: Christmas Seal booth, nursery school tuition for Craig Thrall, supplying clothing, toys and books for the Casa Colina Thrift shop in Pomona, assisting the evening department of the Woman's club in dressing dolls for Christmas gifts for underprivileged children, supplying canned hams and chickens and staples for Christmas dinners for needy families in cooperation with the Arcadia Welfare and Thrift shop. The club also provided art supplies for the Little Flower Missionary home and donated money to the National Cerebral Palsy fund and March of Dimes.

Mrs. Swanson reported that the annual spring dance was a great success and also reported on the money raised through ways and means projects during the year.

The juniors voted to support the following philanthropy projects to close the year's work; donation to the Sister Kenny foundation in the name of Jackie Thrall, the Casa Colina Home for Crippled Children in Chino, to supply the milk fund for the All Nations Foundation in Los Angeles, to provide camperships for Camp Fire Girls, and the remainder of the money to go to the John Tracy clinic.

Mrs. Richard Hachten, incoming president, gave a report of the State CFWC Juniors convention which she attended with Mrs. Gerard Connor, president. Mrs. Hachten outlined the three resolutions the delegates adopted at the Saturday sessions at the Biltmore hotel. In one resolution the Juniors urged the teaching of United States history in all schools. "Its study," the resolution said, "should be a fundamental part of the education of every pupil in the nation."

Another resolution asked that federal hospitalization for mentally disabled veterans be provided to relieve California's mental institutions of the care of 4600 veterans, while 3000 non veterans await admission for treatment. The third resolution, Mrs. Hachten reported, adopted with some delegates dissenting, asked that new laws be enacted by State legislature to prohibit children from playing in the streets. It requested that such a law make parents responsible for violation.

By a majority vote, Mrs. Walter High was elected corresponding secretary, a new office created this year. There will be one more business meeting this year, and the installation dinner will be held at Eaton's June 18.

Club Closes Year's Work At Luncheon

Mrs. John T. Simpson, president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, presided at her last meeting on June 21, with luncheon served at 11:30 a. m. by Mrs. Rose Lane and her committee.

Bob Huntington of Arcadia, a student at Monrovia-Duarte high school, whose expenses to Boys' State will be paid by the Woman's club, was a special guest. This is the first time that the club has sent a student to Boys' State. He was introduced by Mrs. Floyd Henderson, projects chairman. Also seated at the head table were the 16 luncheon chairmen who served during the year. These were thanked by the president.

The drama department of the club presented students of Pasadena City college in a play, "I Am a Bachelor." Meryl Regnier sang a special song, "The House I Live In." Mrs. John P. Ross and Mrs. Katherine Brown were decorations chairmen.

The winners of the poetry contest, sponsored by the literary department, were announced as follows: Mrs. S. J. Nock, first prize; Mrs. John T. Simpson, second prize; Mrs. Edmund Maier, third prize; Mrs. Albert Green and Mrs. Ida K. Welch, honorable mention.

Following the luncheon intermission, a splendid book review was given by Margaret Mendenhall.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

Annual installation of officers of the Woman's Club of Arcadia will be held Wednesday in the clubhouse. Mrs. Nan Shaw, a friend of the incoming president, Mrs. Bruce McAbery, will be installing officer. "Love" will be the theme of the ceremony.

The music department of the club, under the direction of Mrs. Thatcher Jordan, has arranged two songs of tribute, one to the outgoing officers and one for the new year.

The traditional installation tea will be held following the ceremony and will be in charge of Mrs. Archie Wilson, hospitality chairman, and her committee.

Mrs. John T. Simpson, retiring president, will conduct a short business meeting at 12:30 p. m. to conclude the business of the year and to hear the historian's report. The installation will follow.

Club Section To Seek Play Revival

Translation of interest into action in seeking the revival of John Steven McGroarty's famed Mission Play is being sought by the California history and landmarks department of the Woman's club of Arcadia, according to Mrs. J. E. Hutton, department chairman. The Mission play, whose slogan during its original period of 21 consecutive seasons was "You haven't seen California until you've seen the Mission Play" attracted over 3,000,000 spectators, and was considered one of the Southland's leading cultural assets.

The resolution adopted by the local group asks for a formal study by public agencies of the feasibility of reviving the play, taking into account such factors as financial cost, leadership, and production problems. Public sponsorship, either by the city of Los Angeles' Parks and Recreation commission, or the Historical office of the State's Parks and Recreation commission, with the production to be located in a metropolitan center such as the Greek theater or the Pilgrimage bowl are suggested by the Arcadia club's department.

"It would seem especially appropriate to carry out the production of the Mission play as a recreation activity, giving to several hundred people an opportunity to use their talents toward a worthwhile end," the California history and landmarks resolution continues. "Our members particularly suggested that youth participation be encouraged in order that California History become a vivid part of the heritage of our boys and girls."

Assistance of the District CFWC chairman in securing wide support and united women's effort behind the revival move is being asked by the local club women as they point out that their action is particularly appropriate coming from a San Gabriel Valley group since San Gabriel was the original home of the Mission play.

Club Section To Install Officers

The international relations department of the Arcadia Woman's club will install officers at a picnic to be held Monday noon at the home of Mrs. Richard Hilf, 245 West Foothill boulevard.

New officers were elected at the last regular meeting of the department which was held in the solarium of the clubhouse and presided over by Mrs. Hilf, retiring chairman. New officers include Mrs. D. Schottler, chairman; Mrs. M. W. Cocke, vice-chairman and program; Mrs. Florence Adams, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Lucy Wyss, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. John P. Ross and Mrs. Ralph Hankins acted as hostesses for the meeting. Following luncheon, Mrs. Hilf turned the meeting over to Mrs. N. E. Stadig, who introduced Mrs. Ed Ainsworth, afternoon speaker, who read an interesting paper on Egypt. Mrs. Wood Glover read from a recent magazine on the real power in Egypt.

Mrs. John Simpson Closes Happy Year as Woman's Club Leader

Mrs. John T. Simpson, retiring president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, paid tribute to her officers, chairmen and vice-chairmen at a victory party which she hosted on May 18 in the clubhouse. At the opening of the year, Mrs. Simpson entertained her officers and chairmen at a leadership luncheon when plans for the coming year were made.

Mrs. Simpson's theme for the year, "Let's go forward together with our hearts in our work," was carried out in the decorations at the dessert luncheon tables. Out of 80 chairmen and officers, 73 were present at the enjoyable party. The group sang "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" and closed the fellowship period by singing "Auld Lang Syne." Bridge and canasta followed.

In paying tribute to her officers and chairmen, Mrs. Simpson stated that all the goals set at the leadership luncheon had been attained and more even than had been dreamed of. She expressed her sincere gratitude to the group for her happy and successful year.

The leadership luncheon was the first time this approach to the club's problems and progress was used, and many "firsts" were inaugurated during Mrs. Simpson's term. For the first time in the history of the club a chronicle committee was appointed by the president and the complete history of the club was compiled in book form and sold to the membership at cost.

The executive board turned over $1000 to the club as the start of a building fund and a committee was appointed to investigate building costs. The sum was augmented with gifts of $100 each from the Junior Woman's club and from the evening department of the club.

A record was made during the year with 82 new members accepted into the club. Mrs. Simpson inaugurated the policy of seating new members at a center table with the membership chairmen until they became acquainted with the club, and also designated hostesses at each table to promote friendliness for all. Corsages in the club colors of pink and green were presented to all new members. The attendance during the year averaged 175 at the luncheon meetings. Four life memberships were presented during the year.

Another first was a written policy for senior and junior relationships drawing the clubs closer in harmony and understanding, and the eight-point Americanism program which included singing the national anthem at each meeting.

The club participated internationally in the Crusade for Freedom program and the club beamed many radiograms behind the Iron Curtain. Letters and magazines were also sent to Germany and many other countries through the Council of International clubs. Federation was stressed and 24 chairmen attended CFWC conferences during the year.

Emphasis was placed on youth and the approach to the youth program in the Woman's club was on a more personal basis. Active sponsorship and personal contact even in philanthropy was the theme. The club sponsors five Camp Fire groups and five Girl Scout Troops with about 150 children in all. The leader of each group was a guest of honor at least once at a club luncheon. An essay contest was sponsored and the awards were made at the club party given the groups at the clubhouse on March 28.

The philanthropy committee used many youth groups as recipients of a great part of the budget voted by the club for the year.

The founding of the Arcadia Historical society under the sponsorship of the Woman's club history and landmarks department was a civic undertaking of worthy note. Another contribution to the civic welfare of Arcadia, the club is in the process of reactivating an Arcadia Safety council under the city sponsorship.

All departments of the club made outstanding records during the year.

Evening Department Installs Officers at Luncheon at Pierre's

Installation luncheon of the evening department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia was held Wednesday, May 27, at Pierre's in San Marino, with Mrs. John T. Simpson, retiring president of the Woman's club, as installing officer. She commended the group on its outstanding work for the past year and as she installed new officers, likened them to flowers in a garden of friendship, presenting each with a lovely corsage of roses tied with blue (denoting friendship) ribbon.

Taking office were Mrs. Verne Winchell, who will serve for the second year as chairman; Mrs. Robert Titgemeyer, vice-chairman; Mrs. Carl Hoglund, secretary; Mrs. Allan Langlois, treasurer; Mrs. Ernest Hutchins, ways and means; Mrs. Earl Towsley, parliamentarian. Others to serve are Mmes. Gene Clarkson, Kelvin Turner and Thomas Kemp, philanthropy, publicity and hospitality chairmen, respectively.

Each officer also received a leather looseleaf notebook containing details of her office and a roster of members. Members and officers formed a living circle of friendship while Mrs. Kemp sang "Blest Be the Tie" with appropriate words to fit the evening department. Mrs. A. P. Stuhrman accompanied on the piano.

Mrs. Winchell thanked the outgoing officers and chairmen for their cooperation and efforts in behalf of the group. These were Mmes. Richard Marsh, vice-chairman; Robert Titgemeyer, secretary; Jack Wagner, treasurer; Albert Clement, ways and means chairman, and Earl Towsley, publicity.

For the benefit of the newer members, Mrs. Winchell gave a report of the year's activities, which included a successful "White Christmas" dance, enabling the group to do much in the way of philanthropy work. These included purchasing and dressing 50 dolls with two complete outfits each, for the half-orphans of Los Angeles county in the district; for the older girls, material was purchased for skirts, which were made by the 4-H club members, sweaters were given to match. A sleeping bag was purchased for half-orphan boy scout, and repairs made to nine donated bicycles, which were also given to the half-orphans. Sponsoring a Brownie troop and cooperating with the Junior Woman's club in its Thanx project by contributing two boxes of necessities for soldiers in Korea.

Members participated in the Mothers' March on Polio and sent hundreds of letters to the state of the Historical Committee of the Los Angeles County-State Arboretum, to show our enthusiasm for the work being accomplished on Arcadia's great historical landmark, the Rancho Santa Anita. 2. This Dept. sponsored, by furnishing both the leadership and financing, the founding of the Arcadia Historical Society, in observance of the city's forthcoming Fiftieth anniversary. 3. This Dept. presented to the club on Apr. 15, a program by Ed Ainsworth. 4. The Dept. chairman is working with the Chamber of Commerce to cooperate in city's ovvicial observance of its 50th birthday in July.

The Art Dept.---Mrs. A. F. Hacquebord, chairman. Visited Art Galleries and Art studios on five different occasions. These trips were accompanied by Mrs. Wishek, an art teacher. The chairman attended 4 district meetings accompanied by other members. This dept. has contributed greatly to the local interest in art as well as kept the membership interest at a high level. All during the year interesting exhibits of Arts and Crafts have been held in the club. On April 15 was the second annual Art and Craft Exhibit ever held in Arcadia. Club members were permitted three pieces of their work on Art or Crafts. The success was phenominal as many throughout the Valley interested in this exhibit came to pay homage to the splendid work and efforts of this department who has made such rapid strides in so short a time.

International Relations Dept.--- Has grown in membership under the careful guidance of the chairman, Mrs. Richard Hilf. The membership totals 30 active. Interesting programs given at each meeting have held the interest at high level. These were arranged by Mrs. Eric Stadig, program chairman, and cover pertinent topics of the world of today as well as topics of International interests. The meetings have been held in both homes of members and the clubhouse. This dept. sponsored a club program on Dec. 3--the speaker, Col. Abbott Boone, U.S. Army, retired. He spoke on "International problems confronting President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The Ways and Means project was a brunch under the auspices of Mrs. Clara Morris; the speaker, Miss Margaret Vochelli, talked on Africa and her pictures were very interesting also. The amount netted was approximately $30.00. The Christmas philanthropy was a contribution to the Junior Woman's Club to buy gifts for the boys in Korea. The chairman attended all district conferences. The club contribution will be a map and easel purchased by the department which all the club may use, or a large picture screen which the club needs so badly.

The Literature Dept.---Mrs. Charles Ganther in the capacity of chairman, had a most outstanding year from every viewpoint. Conforming to the By-laws of the mother club relative to the amount of money each department is permitted to have for the year's activities, this department actually has a record in their philanthropy equal to many small individual clubs. One of their philanthropies was the "Lending Library" which was a BFWY project last year but found so worthwhile and needed that it was undertaken again this year by this department, under the guidance of Mrs. M. A. Snell. Nine children who were "Shut-Ins" were serviced, their reading level determined and made to feel a great deal less of a shut-in by this kindly service.
